

Former Head of Schools in Southern Pines Dies

Roy Ledden Passes Away at Home in Sanford at Age of 53 Years

Roy Ledden died at his home in Sanford last Friday afternoon, March 22. The afternoon previous he had been at work in his garden when he suffered a heart attack he never recovered from. Mr. Ledden was 53 years old. About 20 years ago he came to Southern Pines to take charge of the school. During the time he was superintendent he met and married Miss Ruth Eastman, a well known Southern Pines girl. Later the couple moved to New Jersey where he continued in his educational work. He was a graduate of Dickinson College, and did post graduate work at Harvard. For the last ten years the Ledden family made their home in Sanford where Mr. Ledden was at one time principal of the Deep River High School. He was also interested in farming and gardening. His widow, three sons, Bruce, Roy, Jr., and Lynn, and two daughters, Cecilia and Gertrude, survive. A brother Oral and sister Miss Rilla Ledden are left in New Jersey. Services were held in Sanford at the Rogers Funeral Home Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, burial following in Mount Hope cemetery.
