Theatre

At Pinehurst

The advent of "My Heart is Calling," the new musical romance and comedy starring Jan Kiepura, the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre Monday, April 29th, matinee and night," that Kiepura made his U. S. on the American screen of the handsome young Polish tenor of world wide fame. It was in "Be Mine Tonight," that Kiepura made his U. S. debut last year, sung himself into the hearts of fandom, and, incidentally registered such a tremendous box office success that ever since, his newly-won admirers have been clam-oring to see and hear more of him in films. "My Heart is Calling" provides the vivacious and singularly magnetic Kiepura with an eminently acceptable hero role. Quite apart from the scope given him to demonstrate the powers of a singer which have already led critics to refer to him as a new Caruso, the character he portrays is so peculiarly in tune with his naturally light, joyous temperament, that he actually lives it. In Martha Eggerth, the lucky Kiepura has a leading lady who combines good looks with extraordinary terpsichorean, vocal and dramatic abilities. As an added attraction the third issue of The March of Time" will be shown.

A tip to Bernie fans! Turn off your radio and go down to the Pinehurst

Cameron, Cameron, N. C.

Theatre Wednesday, May 1st, matinee and night, and see the old maestro himself in Paramount's "Stolen Harmony." It will afford you as much enjoyment as a month of listening to him. And, even if you are not a Bernie fan, see him and be converted.
Starred with George Raft in a film that is an adroit blend of comedy, melody and drama, Ben Bernie and his lads romp along with a brand-new Gordon and Revel score, scattering laughs and thrills every foot of the way. "Stolen Harmony" presents the maestro in a role where he can act himself. He is the leader of a troupe barnstorming through the states in an enormous bus. Raft plays a saxaphonist and dancer in Bernie's company and Grace Bralley furnishes the romantic interest for Raft. Bernie and his lads emerge as full-fledged performers, deserting their instruments on occasions to clown and dance about with the girls who are part of the troupe. As an added attraction will be shown, in technicolor, Mickey's Kangaroo."

Venturing into the domains of debatable subject matter as he did with "The House of Rothschild," intrepid Darryl F. Zanuck again essays the biographical drama with another provocative world personality and again triumphs with entertainment that is bound to cause comment, and sure to draw crowds. This attraction is "Cardinal Richelieu" with sympathetic strokes, setting him amidst the intrigues of the decadent court of Louis XIII and colorfully revealing the dramatic conflicts that beset kind and prelate alike, a fine balance of appeal is achieved to please the large body of faithful adherents to the church as well as others. Aside from its historical importance, the production pictures Richelieu as a human being. George Arliss' Richelieu is polished, suave and subtle and gives that grand Thespian full sway for his exceptional talent. Maureen O'Sullivan and Casar Romero supply the romance.

At Southern Pines

Crackling in "The Thin Man" manner, jaunty and light-hearted and full of laughs as its murder is solved.
"Star of Midnight" plays a return engagement at the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, April 29, 30, May 1st, with a Tuesday matinee. William Powell, a lawyer, and Ginger Rogers, his sweetheart, teaming themselves as Holmes and Watson, solve the killing of Columnist Russell Hopton in hilarious manner. The original story, published in serial form, was by the late Arthur Somers Roche, noted crime story writer. Romance and comedy are closely linked with clues, bringing the police and socialites in for contrasting dramatic interest. Powell again demonstrates his light comedy expertness, permitting the drama to see the under flip cracks and general raciness.

The sensation of the year in the film world is the teaming of Al Jolson, famous Mammy singer who first introduced talking pictures, and Ruby Koeler, his wife, former Broadway musical comedy star who leaped to fame in the movies in two years, in First National's latest and said to be its greatest musical spectacle, "Go Into Your Dance," playing a return engagement at Southern Pines Thursday, Friday, Saturday, May 2, 3, 4, with a Saturday matinee. While the picture is a mammoth musical spectacle, it carries a well defined plot and a fascinating romance with tense emotional scenes, interspersed with hilarious comedy relief. There are seven songs hits in the picture, sung by Jolson, Miss Keeler and Helen Morgan, famous torch singer. The story concerns a Broadway entertainer, who is barred from playing in New York because of his fondness for wine, women and the ponies. As an added attraction, Mickey's "Kangaroo," in technicolor, will play a return engagement.
