

Pinehurst High School Awards Diplomas to Class of 24 Pupils

Dr. H. M. Poteat Addresses Seniors at Graduation on "What Is Education?"

Twenty-four Seniors won their diplomas at Pinehurst High School last Thursday evening. After hearing an able address by Dr. H. M. Poteat of Wake Forest College on "What is Education," the following were awarded the coveted pigskins:

Misses Frances Ehrhardt, Dorothy Garrison, Mildred Greer, Dorothy Kellis, Una Lewis, Katie Lee Maness, Bertie Marie McKenzie, Catherine Ritter, Evelyn Smith, Ruth Smith, Eileen Whelpley and Elizabeth Wiseman, and Myron Barrett, James Carter, Davis Currie, Joe Frye, Roger Frye, A. H. Garrison, Jr., Omar Garrison, Olive Kellis, Hector Lee, Eugene McKenzie, Donald Whelpley and Warren McKenzie.

Miss Dorothy Garrison was valedictorian of her class, and Miss Mildred Greer salutatorian. Of the boys, James Carter made the highest average.

The commencement program opened on Monday night when the Rev. Mr. Fulton of Laurinburg delivered the baccalaureate sermon. The High School Glee Club and Charles Templeton of Fayetteville furnished the music, with Miss Katherine Blue at the organ. On Monday evening the pupils of Miss Katherine Blue gave a recital, and Billy Viall again won the gold medal. Gold pins for music were awarded Bobby Viall and Vivian Currie.

"The Golden Whistle" was presented by the pupils of the Elementary School on Tuesday evening under the direction of Miss Katherine Blue and the Elementary teachers. At the close of the operetta the Junior class presented "The Spider of Singapore" under the direction of Miss Virginia Simkins. This was one of the most enjoyable programs of the week.

The Rev. E. C. Ruffin of Ellerbe addressed the seventh grade on Wednesday morning. County Superintendent H. Lee Thomas presented certificates to 26 members of the class. Reading certificates and perfect attendance were presented by Principal W. P. Morton.

"Seniors at the Bar" was given by the Senior Class on Thursday evening under the direction of Miss Virginia Simkins.

The Mrs. W. S. Dunlop cash prizes were awarded to Virginia Smith and Jack Short. Frances Ehrhardt and Myron Barrett won the books presented by Mrs. Gertrude W. Tufts for the best work in dramatics. Dorothy Kellis and Joe Frye were awarded the T. C. Cheatham cash prizes for outstanding work in dramatics. Dorothy Garrison won a book for making the highest average for the four years of high school.

Della Freeman won the medal and Helen Fields the prize offered by the auxiliary of the American Legion. Mildred Greer was awarded the D. A. R. American History medal. She also won the $10.00 cash prize for the most valuable units. Mildred Greer and W. P. Morton, Jr., won the Leonard Tufts Loyalty medals. This is considered the greatest of all honors.

The names of Mildred Greer and A. H. Garrison were inscribed on the high school athletic trophy for having won the most points in the athletic program. This honor also came to the seniors. The names of Eloise Wicker and James Morgan were inscribed on the elementary athletic trophy. This honor also came to the third grade.

Pinehurst had one of its best school years. Higher standards of conduct and scholarship were maintained. The boys' basketball team won the sportsmanship banner. Ordinarily good scholastic achievement implies that good attitudes and desirable habits are being fostered in a school. These accomplishments are being made possible by a reasonable, cooperative and interested public, by a live parent-teacher organization, and by a sympathetic and school-minded Board of Education. Pinehurst is justly proud of its school.

Shock over the loss of Mr. Hilton was thought to be one of the causes of her sudden death.

FELIX ADDOR ENTERTAINS PUPILS OF COLORED SCHOOL

Felix Addor gave his annual party to the pupils of the Lincoln Park colored school the other day, and a merry time was had by the youngsters. Under the supervision of Principal W. A. Gray they marched like trained soldiers to Mr. Addor's Park Farm and enjoyed luncheon. Then came the annual contest when their host asked the children these questions: 1. What is Peach on Earth?; 2. What is Christmas?; 3. What is Easter?

At the conclusion of the contest Mr. Addor addressed the pupils and among other things said: "I am pleased to see great improvement in the thought of these contests over the preceding years. Peace on earth and Christmas are linked together. Peace begins at home with obedience and is brought to school and carried throughout the world. The ungrateful work of the teacher becomes much lighter when there is obedience in the home."

The six children making the best answers to the questions were given their choice of 100 prizes arranged on the "prize table." The remaining articles were given to the other children.
