

The Week in Vass

Community Song Service
A community song service or "Hymn Sing" will be held in the Vass Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, June 2, with the Young People of the Church in charge of the program. Special instrumental and vocal numbers will be given and favorite hymns will be sung by the congregation. The public is cordially invited to be present and to join in the service.

The regular first Sunday morning service will be held in the Vass Methodist church at 11:00 o'clock Sunday morning with the pastor, the Rev. Leon M. Hall, bringing the message.

Beginning this week Hotel Charmella will be under the management of Miss Mattie McDuffie of Sanford, who is succeeding H. C. Livingstone, resigned. Miss McDuffie assisted with the hotel here for a short time several years ago, and made a most favorable impression upon the public. She has had hotel experience in South Boston, Va., and several other places and is well fitted for the work.

It is not known at present just what Mr. Livingstone's plans are, as he is said to have several propositions under consideration.

It has been learned with regret that John McCrimmon of West End, for the past eight years principal of the Vass-Lakeview schools, has tendered his resignation to the local school board. Mr. McCrimmon has rendered a fine service to the community during his years as head of the schools, and has shown a cooperative spirit that has been deeply appreciated by the patrons. Under his management the schools have made steady progress and the tact and understanding of the principal have been largely responsible for the smoothness with which the institution has run. As yet no successor for Mr. McCrimmon has been elected.

Mrs. H. C. Livingstone and little daughter, Joann, spent last weekend with relatives in Sanford.

John Thompson and daughter, Miss Billie Thompson, of Ellerbe visited Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Thompson Sunday.

Miss Mary Beasley went to White Oak Friday to be present at the wedding of her brother, Wilbur Beasley, and Miss Lucy Cain, which was solemnized in the White Oak Baptist church at sunset. Mr. Beasley is principal of the school at Hobgood and Mrs. Beasley has been a popular member of the Apex school faculty. They will be at home in Hobgood where Mr. Beasley has a position as baseball coach during the summer.

Mrs. Monroe Chappell and baby, Joanne, returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Blackstone, S. C.

Miss Jennie Cameron went to Rockingham Friday to spend a few days with friends.

Henry A. Borst, Jr., who has been attending Campbell College during the past year, is at home for his vacation.

Vick Keith and Franklin Matthews visited in Chapel Hill and Durham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Graham had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Will Graham and children, Misses Kate and Eva Graham, and Miss Mary McNeill of near Cameron.

Mrs. W. D. Matthews, Preston and Duncan, Jr., visited in Cameron Sunday afternoon.

A. R. Laubscher and family spent Sunday with relatives near McCall, S. C.

Friends of the Rev. Frank Hare were glad that he was able to fill his regular appointment in the Vass Baptist church on Sunday after having been confined to his home for several weeks by illness. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hare from their home in Jonesboro and they were dinner guests of Mrs. G. W. Brooks.

Clean-up day was observed at Johnson's Grove cemetery on Tuesday, and the entire hillside is now in splendid shape. The flowers in the cemetery are unusually beautiful this spring and more and more interest in making the place beautiful is being manifested by those having loved ones buried there.

Between thirty and forty crates of berries were sent out from Vass by express Monday morning, and some were carried to Southern Pines that afternoon to catch a northbound train in order that they too might be on the market Wednesday morning. Buyers have been on hand at the auction market since Wednesday and the gathering and marketing will be in full swing by next week.

Miss Sadie Winstead will conduct an electric cooking school in the Vass-Lakeview School building at 3 o'clock this Friday afternoon, May 31. All Vass-Lakeview community ladies are invited to attend.

A relief project of much value to the community was that of clearing up the school grounds, building walks and planting flowers. A concrete retaining wall along the edge of the front campus adjoining the driveway adds much to the general appearance.

Mrs. W. D. Wilson went to Washington, D. C., this week to spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Maude Cameron, student nurse at the Hamlet Hospital, visited her aunt, Mrs. R. G. Rosser Sunday.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Durham, Mrs. John Baker, Mrs. Joe Downing, Mrs. R. L. Phillips and Mrs. Miller attended a zone meeting in Troy Thursday.

The Book Reviewers met on Thursday evening with Miss Bess Stuart. The following program was enjoyed: "Leading Irish Playwright," Miss Mary Currie; "Spreading the News," by Lady Gregory—Mrs. J. A. Davis; "The Hour Glass," by William Butler Yeats, Miss Mattie Kate Shaw.

Mrs. Dan Carter was hostess to the members of her bridge club and several additional guests on Friday afternoon. Contract was played at five tables. Mrs. R. W. Pleasants was awarded club prize and Miss Judith Wainer guest prize.

The barn of W. D. McCraney at Vass was destroyed by fire of unknown origin late Monday afternoon. Mrs. McCraney was working among her flowers when she was attracted by the roaring of the flames, which spread rapidly. A crowd quickly gathered after the alarm was given and the blaze was prevented from spreading to other nearby buildings.
