

Relief Organization Changes Announced

New Work Projects Director to Have Charge of All But Direct Relief

Mrs. Thomas O'Berry is expected to continue as director of the State Federal relief organization, but the work of this organization is to be reduced and the extra work assumed by a work projects director for the State.

Mrs. O'Berry was in Washington last week and reported that she understood Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins and Governor Ehringhaus were in agreement as to North Carolina's contribution to relief, and that no trouble is expected by North Carolina in getting her share of the funds to be distributed.

Mr. Hopkins has caused a new setup in North Carolina, composed of eight districts, each with about a dozen counties, and with a central city as the district headquarters from which the work relief will be administered.

per cent from the relief rolls, exceptions to be approved by the head of the work progress organization. This, it is feared, will handicap the work and prevent utilizing labor that might otherwise be on relief rolls.

CAMERON STORE ROBBED

Moore county officers were called to investigate a robbery which occurred in Cameron Monday night when the store and market of Charlie Boaz was entered and thirty or forty dollars worth of cigarettes, tobacco and other articles stolen.

Everybody's going to the Curb Market in Southern Pines on Saturday now.
