Theatre

Callow college youths are the victims of the super-criminal in the fascinating campus murder mystery, "College Scandal," the attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 1, 2, 3, with a Tuesday matinee. "College Scandal" features Kent Taylor, Arline Judge and Wendy Barrie, the charming English miss, newcomer to the American screen.

The story of "College Scandal" combines the best features of the thriller, with some appealing romance and excellent entertainment. Wendy Barrie is the "femme fatale" of "College Scandal." A newcomer to Rutgat's campus, the French-born daughter of a new professor, she is the center of attraction for all the campus males until one of her admirers is mysteriously murdered.

No sooner has the excitement of the first killing died down than another boy becomes the victim of the super-criminal and a third barely escapes with his life. The police are baffled, the authorities of the college are helpless and the student body panic stricken, when Kent Taylor, a young professor, and Arline Judge, who acts his sister, begin to pit their skill with the fiendish killer. There is plenty of excitement as Taylor runs down the killer through a slender trail of clues.

"Common American kid has at last found an ardent, sturdy and wholly admirable screen champion of the pre-adolescent age—the first young girl champion the films have projected, and her triumph is an entertainment event of consequence." So says a Hollywood reporter relatives to nine-year-old Jane Withers, the bright and shining star of "Ginger," the attraction for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 4, 5, 6, with a Saturday matinee. Jane Withers, the kid who imitated a machine gun, told tales on Shirley Temple, tried to run her down with a doll carriage and proved herself a complete annoyance in "Bright Eyes," will put you in stitches in this one. Little Miss Withers sets a new style in comedy entertainment in "Ginger," which kept a Hollywood preview audience in continual guffaws and caused the prediction that the film is a great beginning for what looks like a great career. Little Jane registers a millions dollars worth of personality and talent in her new picture and Sandhill patrons are assured that they will love her as much in this story as they hated her in "Bright Eyes." O. P. Heggie gives an outstanding performance as Jane's foster-uncle and Katherine Alexander and Walter King provide an unusual romance as Jackie Searl's parents.

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED BOYS AT C. M. T. C. CAMP

Two scholarships have been donated by Carolina colleges to the Citizens Military Training Camp at Fort Bragg. One of these was given by the University of North Carolina, has a value of $75.00, and runs for a period of one year. The other was donated by Newberry College, Newberry, S. C. It has a value of $110.00, plus the possibility of further aid, and likewise runs for one year.

Both scholarships are to be awarded on a merit basis to outstanding members of the C. M. T. C. Camp to be held at Fort Bragg in August. Both scholarships are open to competition by trainees from both North and South Carolina, but only to members of the Fort Bragg camp.

The period for making applications for this year's C. M. T. C. Camp will close on June 30th.

SANDHILL FURNITURE CO., TO EXHIBIT IN CHICAGO

Among exhibits in the National Furniture Show opening in Chicago on July 8th will be one from Moore county, that of the Sandhill Furniture Company of West End. Fred Von Canon, who will be in charge of the exhibit, will leave soon for Chicago.

INSTITUTE OF GOVERNMENT

ment a clearing house of information for all.

To educate the officials themselves, and to interest and educate the public, and to instruct youth will bring to the people a clear understanding of popular government and go a long way toward combating existing propaganda against our form of government, in the opinion of the present Director of the Institute of Government. All these classes are showing more and more interest and desire to learn each year, Mr. Coates says.
