Moore county is in district 5 with headquarters at Greensboro.

RICHARD LACHINE WINS PRIZE IN PHOTO CONTEST

Richard Lachine won the second prize offered this week in the Amateur Photo Contest which is being sponsored by the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, Abraham and Straus, and the Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

The prize winning picture was the third one he had submitted and one he snapped of Powell's Lake and the cabin. Richard develops and prints his own pictures and makes his own enlargements.

When he graduated at Gettysburg he was staff photographer on the school paper, and many of his pictures were in the school's year book. Last week he entered a picture of some long leaf pines which he named "Southern Pines," and hopes to get a first prize on that one.

All the prize winning pictures will be on display at Abraham and Straus in Brooklyn during the contest which closes September 14th. The final prize is a course of study at the Institute of Arts and Sciences in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Cakes of all kinds, freshly baked, for sale at the Curb Market in Southern Pines.
