MAN WANTED HERE IS CAUGHT AT KNIGHTDALE

On Sunday Moore county officers went to Knightdale to get Nathaniel Smith, alias Harold Harrington, who is suspected of being the man who assaulted Mr. Hough of Hillcrest, a former employer, one morning last winter as he was on his way to the barnyard to feed his stock.

Mr. Hough was struck on the head with a blackjack, but his assailant became frightened and fled. It was thought that the motive was robbery. Although the Negro was wearing a towsack to conceal his identify, Mr. Hough felt certain that Smith was the man.
