THIS SCALE IS ALL THE PROOF I NEED THAT COW CHOW'S THE MILK MAKING FEED

YOU'RE THE JUDGE!

YOU'LL FIND by your own weighing and checking that Purina Cow Chow makes more milk. It cuts the cost of production, too. We don't ask you to take our word for it. Simply weigh your milk and keep your own record. Your results will confirm what dairymen everywhere are saying, "Cow Chow gives a cow what she needs to milk at her best at the lowest cost per gallon of milk."

4 Held For Death of Pinehurst Chauffeur

Knew They Hit Something, Thought It Was a Dog, One Witness Testifies

Sandy Black, John F. Blue, H. E. Blue and Bascom Farmer, white men who live in the country between Carthage and Pinehurst, were on Monday in Recorder's Court bound to Superior Court under bond of $200 each in connection with a hit and run automobile accident which resulted in the death of Henry Oaks, a colored chauffeur of Pinehurst, several months ago.

Doris Kelly testified that she was walking along the Southern Pines-Pinehurst road in Pinehurst with Oaks when the accident occurred between twelve and one o'clock at night and that they were on the left side of the road, she on the shoulder and he on the edge of the hard surface, when a car came from behind them and knocked him down.

Deputy Sheriff Currie testified that after investigating the case for two or three weeks and gaining information that the above named defendants were driving around on the night of the accident, he went to see the Blue boys and that they admitted being in the car and remembering that they hit something in Pinehurst, but thought it was a dog or something. Farmer, the officer testified, said when questioned that they had all been drinking some, and that Sandy Black was driving.

When Farmer was called to the stand, he claimed that he went to sleep between Aberdeen and Pinehurst and that he did not remember who was driving.

Upon the calling by the solicitor of John Black as a witness, the attorneys for the defendants objected to his testifying and stated that they would waive further examination and allow their clients to be bound to superior court.

Will Kelly, colored of the Carthage section, was placed under bond of $1,000 to await trial in Superior court on a charge of secret assault with intent to kill. He is alleged to have shot Herbert Peoples through the eye with a pistol.

Too Many Wives?
R. F. Darnell, white of Carthage, has learned that haste makes waste, in marriage as well as in other things, for his marriage to wife number two has resulted in a bigamy charge, upon which he was bound to Superior Court under bond of $200. The first Mrs. Darnell started suit for divorce in August; the summons was served on Darnell in September, and he thought that he had a right to go ahead and get married again. But the case was not tried, hence the tangle.

Louise Turna, colored of Southern Pines, was given four months in jail to work at the county home on charges of possession of liquor for sale and keeping a disorderly house. Louise, whose nickname is "Sister Highpockets," gave notice of appeal and bond was fixed at $150. One witness denied buying liquor from the defendant, but did admit that he had

Busy Library

S. P. High School Students Read 2,377 Books During Last School Year

During the last school year the high school students of Southern Pines School read 2,377 books. This was an average of eighteen books per pupil in the high school. These books were issued through the school library during the regular school day and in the afternoons. During this year R. E. Freeman will be in the school library on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 3:30 until 4:30 o'clock. Books will be issued at these times to grades seven through eleven. On Wednesday afternoons from 2:30 until 4:00 Miss Sara Goggans will be in the library to serve the elementary school, grades 1 through six. One of the greatest needs of the school library is additional reading material. Any standard books of literature or juvenile books will be highly appreciated by the school.

traded some okra for a glass of liquor.

Reggie and Davis Currie, white of Pinehurst, were found guilty of assault and battery and disorderly conduct and not guilty of public drunkenness. They were given 90 days on the roads, suspended upon payment of a fine of $25 and the costs, and upon condition of good behavior for twelve months.

For possessing and operating a liquor distillery, Jerry Cross, colored of Addor, was given three months on the roads. Ed Covington, a co-defendant, was found not guilty.

Lee Clegg, colored of near Carthage, was given three months on the roads for assaulting Sherman Brower with a brick.

Clyde Cockman, white of Hemp, R. P. Gibson, white of Hemp, and Bill Duke, white, were given road sentences suspended upon payment of fines and costs on charges of driving while intoxicated, and they had their drivers' licenses revoked for 90 days.

Art Morgan and Grover Davis, both white men of Hemp, had their 30-day road sentences imposed for drunken driving suspended upon payment of the costs.

Frank Williams, colored of Aberdeen, was found guilty of unlawful possession of liquor for sale. His 30-day sentence was to be suspended upon payment of a $10 fine and the costs.

FORD AGAIN SPONSORING WORLD SERIES BROADCAST

The World Series is being given again this year over a nationwide hookup of all stations of both the Columbia and NBC networks by the Ford Motor Company, whose broadcasting of this important sporting event was one of the big radio events of 1934. Ford dealers in North Carolina have invited the public to hear the broadcast at their showrooms each day of the series. Many dealers are giving showroom parties with comfortable seating arrangements for their guests.

Truman Bradley, announcer of the Ford Sunday Evening Hour Broadcast from Orchestra Hall, Detroit, will handle the "color" descriptions for Columbia Broadcasting System. Frank Laux, sports announcer for KMOX, St. Louis, and Jack Graney, former baseball player and Cleveland radio baseball reporter, will give the play-by-play descriptions over this network.

Graham McNamee, veteran sports reporter, will visualize the World's Series crowds for National Broadcasting System. Ty Tyson, popular sports reporter for WWJ, Detroit, and Hal Totten of SCFL, Chicago, will report the games.

The starting time of the World's Series games is 1:15 Eastern Standard Time; 12:15 Central Standard Time.

MEET TO PLAN SCHOOL FOR LEADERSHIP TRAINING

All Sunday School superintendents and teachers in the Sandhills are asked to attend a meeting next Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the Church of Wide Fellowship to make plans for a School for Leadership Training. Miss McDaniels, Director of Leadership Training for the State S. S. Association, will lead the discussion of plans.

Family Week Observed by Services in Vass

Evangelistic Meeting at Methodist Church to Close on Sunday Night

Family week is being observed in the evangelistic services now in progress in the Vass Methodist Church. The Tuesday evening service was addressed to the father in the congregation; Mothers' night was observed Wednesday, and young people were the center of interest on Thursday evening. "God Bless Our Old" is to be the topic tonight, Friday, at which time the older people will be the guests of honor, and in addition, the children of the entire community will have a prominent part on the program when they present their service known as the "Children's Church," under the direction of Miss Carolyn Hosford. On account of the down-pour of rain, only about sixty children were present to take part in this service when it was given on last Friday evening, so it was decided to repeat it on Friday of this week.

There will be no service on Saturday evening. The regular service will be held at 11 o'clock Sunday morning and the series will come to a close with the Sunday evening service at 7:30. The special services for men and women which were announced for next Sunday afternoon have been called off.

VASS

The Rev. L. G. Calhoun of Brazil will speak in the Vass Presbyterian Church at 6:30 o'clock Sunday evening, October 6th, and everyone in the community is cordially invited to be present. Mr. Calhoun, a brother of A. M. Calhoun, principal of the local schools, is at home on furlough and is to be with the Rev. C. A. Lawrence in his church services Sunday in addition to speaking in the local church at 6:30 o'clock.

Misses Mary Frank McMillan, Marjorie Leslie, Helen Klingensmidt, Margaret Lambeth and Sarah Edith Matthews and Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Smith and Preston Matthews attended the Sunday School convention in Hemp Sunday evening, at which time the Vass young people presented a dramatization in connection with the program.

Home Coming Day will be observed at Union Church on the third Sunday in October and plans are now being made for a program of outstanding interest and helpfulness. The pastor, the Rev. Charles A. Lawrence, will give more definite information as to the program next week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lacy Deans and T. M. Benoy of Selma called on Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Keith Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aiken Reece and Mr. White of Hamlet were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Griffin Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Byrd and children of Albemarle spent Sunday with Mrs. J. A. Keith and family.

Mrs. Ida Patterson of Winston-Salem is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Jane Keith, of Cranes Creek community.

Miss Jennie Cameron visited friends in Rockingham Sunday.

Miss Jewell Edwards of Mount Olive was at home during the week-end, and on Sunday accompanied her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Edwards, to Smithfield to see Mrs. Seth W. Lassiter, who is recovering from a serious operation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tyson and Misses Ola Parham and Marie Tyson visited Mr. and Mrs. Will McLeod of White Hill Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. A. M. Cameron and A. Mac Cameron visited relatives in Bule's Creek during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brooks and little son, Charles Edward, and Mrs. James Overton of Sanford visited Mrs. G. W. Brooks on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hemphill and baby of Aberdeen spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McCraney.

Mrs. Claud Winfrey and children spent Sunday with relatives in Hamlet.

Mrs. Bryce Griffin, Edward Griffin and Gordon Harmon of Sanford were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Griffin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Parker and Tommy Gschwind of Raeford Route 1 visited relatives here on Thursday of last week.
