MRS. W. G. BROWN IS MADE PUBLIC WELFARE OFFICER

Office, Abandoned Several Years Ago, Re-established by County Commissioners

COUNTY NURSE NAMED

At a joint meeting of the Board of County Commissioners and Board of Education it was ordered that the office of County Superintendent of Public Welfare be established, and Mrs. W. G. Brown, socially prominent woman of Carthage, was elected public welfare officer for a term beginning October 1 and continuing until June 30, 1936 at a salary of $100 per month and $25 per month traveling expense.

Mrs. Brown will serve as truant officer in looking into the failure of children to attend school, and will also be in charge of the general welfare work throughout the county.

Until the office was abolished six years ago, the Welfare work was carried on by Miss Lucille Eifort of West End. Since that time it has been carried on through the office of the county superintendent of education, H. Lee Thomas.

Mrs. Brown is president of the Carthage Woman's Club, chairman of the Capitol District of Federated Music Club, president of the Carthage Music Club and is Democratic vice-chairman of 8th Congressional District.

Miss Vysta Markham of Jackson Springs has been appointed by the County Board of Health to succeed Miss Ollie Seagroves as county nurse, Miss Seagroves having recently resigned.

Miss Markham is a graduate of Highsmith Hospital in Fayetteville, and before taking her training had some teaching experience, so she is well qualified for her duties as county nurse.

GUTHRIE HURT, 1 KILLED IN COLLISION OF AUTOS

Mitchell Guthrie of Cameron was involved in an automobile accident on Sunday night on the Durham-Chapel Hill road which resulted in the death of Clifford A. Walters, aged 32, of Durham. Guthrie had been to Brookneal, Va., visiting his mother, and was returning home when his car, a Chevrolet, was sideswiped by Walters, who was attempting to pass a car going to Durham.

Walters and his companion, Miss Clara Mae Adams, were rushed to Duke Hospital where Walters died from a fractured skull and other injuries. Miss Adams sustained cuts and bruises, but her condition is reported as satisfactory.

Guthrie escaped with a single cut over his eye, but his car was completely demolished. In a routine appearance before Sheriff E. G. Belvin on Monday afternoon, Guthrie was exonerated from all blame.

LOCAL PARTY PAYS VISIT TO N. C. HISTORIC POINTS

Returning on Tuesday from a five-day trip to northeastern North Carolina, a party of four Southern Pines residents, M. G. Nichols, Robert Skinner, H. A. Lewis and Charles Macauley, toured the historic early settlements of the state including the famous birthplace of Virginia Dare on Roanoke Island, and the Wright Memorial at Kill Devil Hills, and deemed themselves fortunate in witnessing a gale-driven surf on the wreck-strewn coast of Nags Head.

Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper are united once more in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "O'Shaughnessy's Boy," coming to the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, October 14, 15, 16, with a Tuesday matinee. Their new picture is described as a dramatic, human interest story of father love told against a background of universal appeal—the circus with all its pathos, humor and spectacle, abundantly punctuated with sure-fire animal thrills.

Here is the picture Beery-Cooper fans have been waiting for ever since "The Champ," one of the most successful pictures of all times. It is their picture from the opening shot until the final fade-out.

Again the spirit and essence of "The Champ" have been captured from a different, novel angle, with an appealing, heart-throbbing twist—a father's regeneration through the love of his son—the son, realizing the sacrifices of his father, in turn sacrificing himself as the picture reaches a triumphant, smashing climax.

From the standpoint of circus spectacle, "O'Shaughnessy's Boy" has never been equalled on the screen. A complete circus was created at M.G.M., managerie, tent with phants, lions, monkeys, camels, water buffalo, llamas and many other animals; Big Top and Side Show. There is the circus parade and many intimate shots of the circus on the road, the "privilege car" and the thrills of circus life.

Wallace Beery has one of his finest roles as "Windy," the confident, easy going, swaggering lion tamer. Jackie Cooper plays his son and Spanky McFarland plays Jackie as a child. An added attraction is the special two-reel subject, picturing the Dionne Quintuplets.

When Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers scored three successive musical film triumphs with "Flying Down to Rio," "The Gay Divorcee" and "Roberta" they set a terrific goal for themselves. Each picture proved more entertaining and successful than its predecessor, which left it strictly up to Astaire and Miss Roger to maintain their record of topping their last effort.

In "Top Hat," the attraction for Thursday, Friday, Saturday, October 17, 18, 19, with a Saturday matinee, which features a complete score of lyrics and melodies by Irving Berlin, the co-stars have met the test by turning out what rates as their best picture to date. Gay, colorful, tuneful and romantic, "Top Hat" is receiving acclaim everywhere as the perfect screen musical. Peace Ballot

I believe as a Christian I should bear arms in or otherwise support—

- Any war which the United States government may declare.
- Any war declared by the United States government against an internationally recognized aggressor.
- Only a war declared by the United States government after making utmost use of every agency for peace.
- Only a war in which United States territory has been invaded.
- No war which the United States government may declare.

In the meantime I will work for peace by advocating for our country—

- Membership in the League of Nations Yes..... No.....
- Consultation with other nations in support of the Kellogg Pact and other peace agreements Yes..... No.....
- National isolation through strict neutrality legislation Yes..... No.....
- More equal distribution of world resources and markets Yes..... No.....
- A larger army, navy and air force.
- Abolition of compulsory military training Yes..... No.....
- Government control of the munitions industry Yes..... No.....

Omaha is an outstanding horse today. And in the cigarette world Chesterfield is outstanding. Both won their place strictly on merit. Apply any test you like—Chesterfields stand for the best there is in cigarettes. They are milder... yet they let you know you're smoking. They taste better—give you real pleasure.
