Aberdeen Merchants Stage Dollar Day With Stores Offering Attractive Bargains

To use the vernacular, Aberdeen is "putting out" today and tomorrow.

Merchants there are staging a Dollar Day, and offering attractive bargains in all lines. Just look over the advertisements on this page and you'll find something you want at a price to fit the pocketbook.

The Aberdeen tobacco market is in full swing and bringing many people to town every day. The stores have stocked up to meet the shopping needs of the tobacco growers at prices they can afford. Now they are inviting the general public to share in these bargains.

It will pay you to shop in Aberdeen the next few days.

CAMERON

Misses Jessie and Ruth McFadyen of Fayetteville spent the week-end at home. When they arrived the house was filled with members of the Y. P. C., who had gathered in honor of Miss Ruth, a valued member of the organization.

Charlie Boaz is building a garage and tourist camp near town on the Sanford road. He expects to be ready for business by the first of January.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gibson of Rockingham were week-end guests of Mrs. Janie Muse.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hemphill and A. M. III spent Sunday with Mrs. Jewell Hemphill.

Mrs. Orene McPherson has sold her cafe to Mr. Davis, who also purchased Flint Loving's interest in the McPherson garage.

Miss Lillian Cole who has been sojourning at Chimney Rock, returned home Monday, much improved in health, and left this week for Concord where she becomes a member of the school faculty.

Dr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson of Lumberton, who attended the home coming at Union church, were guests for a short while in the afternoon of Mrs. Loula Muse.

Prof. and Mrs. R. F. Lowry spent the week-end in Clayton with relatives.

Misses Monte Pearl Bullock and Jessie Thomas, Frank Loving and Ernest Badgett enjoyed a delightful trip through the mountains of Virginia last week. They stopped at Hillville and Stuart.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cooper of Route 1 were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rogers.

Mrs. Haywood Howell of Fayetteville visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pharoah Bullock last week.

Miss Myrtle Boaz of Wilson spent the week-end at home.

A large number of people from Cameron attended the home coming at Union Church. The Rev. M. D. McNeill made a splendid talk.

James McDougald of Hamlet spent Sunday with his grand-mother, Mrs. Julia McDougald.

Mrs. D. B. Teague of Sanford spent Thursday night with her father, the Rev. M. D. McNeill.

Misses Thurla Cole, Katie Harrington, Annie Borst, Mrs. Loula Muse and Jewell Hemphill attended the funeral of Mrs. C. C. Yates, held in the Carthage Baptist Church last Friday afternoon.

Miss Mary Hendricks of High Point spent the week-end at home.

Tobacco Prices Up on Aberdeen Market

Average Over 20 Cents Doing Past Week With Much Leaf on Floors

Tobacco prices have jumped up in Aberdeen during the past week, with the average running over 20 cents for the first sustained period this season. Quantities of leaf have been brought to the floors of the two warehouses, and farmers have been well pleased with the prices paid. Prices generally throughout this belt have improved of late, and there is a much better feeling among the growers, especially those who have been selling in Aberdeen.

NEW MODEL CARS IN ABERDEEN SHOWROOMS

New models of Ford and Chevrolet cars are being shown on the floors of the agencies in Aberdeen, H. A. Page, Jr., and Mid-South Motors, respectively. Many new features have been introduced in both cars. New Buicks and Pontiacs are also attracting much attention at the Martin Motor Company.

President W. L. Dunlop of the Kiwanis club announced two committee appointments on Wednesday, John Howarth of, Southern Pines to the Underprivileged Child committee and Dr. Shepard to the Vocational Guidance committee.

ECHOES FROM THE TOURS OF THE TRAVEL AGENCIES

Only a few of them have ever been in the state before.

"This is my first trip into either North or South Carolina," commented Oscar Bernheim, of Brooklyn, N. Y. "We knew only of your largest resorts, Pinehurst and Asheville."

"You people have been too modest," asserted Mrs. Charles A. Martin, wife of a New York travel agency manager.

"Continue what you are already doing in advertising your state," advised Barton F. Plimpton of Boston, Mass. "People can find down here what they have gone a greater distance and to greater expense to find."

PRIZE BULLDOG ATTRACTS INTEREST ON LOCAL STREETS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Zerkle of Hollywood, Florida, are visiting their son, C. D. Zirkle, in Southern Pines, and have with them their prize-winning bulldog, "Skippy," which they plan to enter in the dog shows at Raleigh and Greensboro. "Skippy" is a native of Canada, one and one-half years old, and has won numerous ribbons in Florida shows. He has attracted much attention on local streets during the past week.

Nothing as good as the new Parker pen at Hayes.
