ATTENTION DAIRYMEN!

THE PURINA COW PLAN provides a definite way of feeding cows during the dry, freshening and milking periods. This wards off cow troubles and builds up milking power. The new Purina Dry and Fitting Chow for cows before and after calving gets cows ready for heavy milking and keeps down calving and udder troubles. The special Purina Cow Chow milking ration, worked out and approved for this locality by the Purina Research Farm, lets you use your home-grown grain to a profitable advantage and gives your cows what they need to milk at their top level without using their own "flesh and bones" in making milk. See us the next time you're in town. We can help you make more money on your cows!

The Week in Vass

Ernest Milton of the Presbyterian Orphans' home in Barium Springs was a guest at the Young People's meeting at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 6:30, and showed pictures of the buildings and grounds at the children's home, and moving pictures of the daily life of the boys and girls. A large crowd from the Vass and Cypress communities attended the service. Mr. Milton expressed his thanks for the loyal support given the orphanage by this group. The local Sunday School gives its third Sunday offering each month to the orphanage, and the auxiliary clothes a little girl there.

A series of revival services which had been in progress at the tabernacle for ten days came to a close with the Sunday evening service. The Rev. Dallas Saunders of Albemarle conducted the meeting, and preached strong gospel messages.

The Rev. Dallas Saunders and his grandmother, Mrs. Reynolds of Troy, and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Clayton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lambert and Miss Margaret Lambert visited Miss Mattie Cagle and Will Cagle of Carthage Sunday.

Mrs. N. N. McLean, Mrs. C. A. Lawrence, Mrs. S. M. McNeill, Miss Emma Gorham, Mrs. R. G. Rosser, Mrs. W. D. McCraney, Miss Mary Frank McMillan and Miss Agnes Smith attended a Presbyterian group conference at Aberdeen last Friday. Little Janet Rosser played a violin solo, with Mrs. F. H. Ponish accompanying her on the piano.

The Rev. Frank Hare will fill his regular appointment at the Vass Baptist church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

There will be no preaching service at the Vass Presbyterian Church on this Sunday evening on account of the revival services which are in progress at the Presbyterian church in Lakeview, but the Rev. Mr. Lawrence will preach in the local church on the following Sunday evening, November 3. The Rev. Malcolm P. Cahoun, who is assisting in the revival at Lakeview, will preach for Mr. Lawrence at the Manly church this Sunday morning and at Cypress in the afternoon. Mr. Lawrence will preach at St. Pauls for Mr. Calhoun Sunday morning.

Mrs. C. A. Lawrence was hostess to the Girls' Circle of the Presbyterian church and the Presbyterian women teachers of the local school last week. As nearly all of the members of the Girls' Circle are now young women, it was decided to organize into a Business Women's Circle, and the following officers were elected: Chairman, Miss Agnes Smith; Secretary, Miss Myrtle McMillan; Treasurer, Miss Mary Frank McMillan. Those present at the meeting in addition to those named were Miss Neolia McCrummen, Miss Lois Buchanan, Miss Ruth Lang, Miss Leone Currie, Miss Margaret Lambert, Miss Marian McMillan, Miss Emma Gorham and Mrs. N. N. McLean, president of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Mrs. Ethel Kirby spent Thursday and Friday in Raleigh as the guest of Mrs. J. S. Bundy.

Mrs. Sarah Margaret McNeill celebrated her 78th birthday on Friday by attending the group conference in Aberdeen. Mrs. McNeill is one of the most active members of the local Presbyterian auxiliary, always doing her part when the group sews for their little girl at the orphanage, or when bed spreads are made for the baby cottage. She was publicly honored by the group at the meeting on Friday.

Miss Ola Parham, who had been with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tyson, for several weeks, left last week to visit relatives at Fayetteville before returning to Florida.

Miss Eloise Brooks of Hallsboro spent last week-end with her mother, Mrs. G. W. Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gladstone and a group of boys of the agriculture class of which Mr. Gladstone is teacher attended the fair in Raleigh on Saturday.

Miss Glennie Keith of Raleigh came down for the afternoon Sunday and accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Keith, and Vick Keith and Linwood Keith to Durham to see Horton Keith.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Rosser, John and Janet Rosser visited Robert at Davidson College Sunday.

Mrs. L. C. Wallace of Carthage is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tyson.

Misses Kate and Eva Graham returned last week from Norfolk where they were guests of their sister, Mrs. Percy Futrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe M. Chappell and little Joanne left the first of the week for a visit with relatives at Blackstock, S. C.

Herman Parker, who is studying for his Master of Arts degree at the University, was at home for the week-end.

Eugene Keith is spending some time in Albemarle with his sister, Mrs. W. C. Byrd.

Edgar Oldham of Palkton visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Oldham last week-end.

Mrs. A. M. Cameron spent the week-end with relatives in Raleigh where she was joined by her daughter, Marion Cameron, of Louisville College.

Mrs. R. A. Eubanks and baby Dolores of New Bern are visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Corbett. The Corbetts and their guests spent Sunday and Monday in Raleigh.

Mrs. W. B. Graham, Miss Katharine Graham and Gerald Graham spent Saturday in Raleigh.

STATE BAR DECLARES WAR ON SHYSTER LAWYERS

Shyster lawyers were given much attention at the annual meeting of the N. C. State Bar in Raleigh last Friday, and ways of eliminating crooked lawyers, and especially those lining up with organized crime, were discussed especially by Judge Henry A. Grady, Clinton, who outshone some of the outsiders in his denunciation. President William L. Ransom, New York, of the American Bar Association; Angus D. MacLean, Assistant Attorney General of the U. S.; J. M. Broughton, Raleigh, president of the N. C. Bar Association; Judge L. R. Varner and Prof. Fred B. McCall, Chapel Hill, were other speakers. Julius C. Smith, Greensboro, was elected president, succeeding I. M. Bailey, Raleigh, and Charles G. Rose, Fayetteville, vice-president. Henry M. London was re-elected secretary. Treasurer by the council. H reported $18,000 in $3 membership dues. Seventeen of the 27 Superior Court judges held a luncheon and decided to meet thus annually. The board of law examiners and heads of law schools met Thursday to try to work out programs for courses of study to fit into the examinations given. Judge Felix Alley said present examinations are unfair in that they do not meet the courses.

SEEDLINGS AVAILABLE FOR REFORESTATION IN STATE

Between five and six million seedlings for reforestation purposes have been produced this year at the State Nursery, near Clayton, and are ready for distribution in the coming planting season. State Forester J. S. Holmes says. About 2,000,000 will be used in soil erosion control planting in the state by the U. S. Soil Erosion Service and the other 3,000,000 will be available to state farmers and landowners. They include about 3,000,000 loblolly pines, nearly 2,000,000 locusts, 750,000 longleaf pines and 500 poplars, and smaller numbers of mimosis, shortleaf pine, maritime pine, black walnut, cypress and chestnut oak. Prices have been reduced even lower, to $2 per 1,000 for loblolly pine and locust, and $3 per 1,000 for longleaf pine, which is much below cost of production. Mr. Holmes says. The U. S. Forest Service cooperates with the Department of Conservation and Development in operating the nursery.

MISS EVELYN BRUTON OF JACKSON SPRINGS WEDS

Miss Evelyn Juanita Bruton and William Allen Capers were married Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Jackson Springs. The home was attractively decorated with cut flowers and ferns. The bride and groom entered together to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. S. L. McDuffie, and music was softly played during the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. R. G. Matheson.

The bride wore a late fall model of black novelty crepe with full length coat trimmed with badger fur, and a white satin blouse. Her corsage was of roses and lilies of the valley. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bruton of Jackson Springs, and for the past year has been with the U. S. Rubber Company in Raleigh. Mr. Capers, the son of Mrs. Eula D.
