Eastern Star District Meeting at Sanford

Mrs. Woolley of Southern Pines, District Deputy, Presides as 175 Gather in Session

The members of Sanford chapter, Number 48, Order of Eastern Star were hostesses last Friday to the members of the chapters composing the sixth district, who assembled in annual meeting, with approximately 175 in attendance.

Mrs. Katherine Woolley, of Southern Pines, district deputy, presided. The address of welcome was delivered by Miss Elva Bryan, worthy matron Sanford chapter, and response by Mrs. Cecil Butler, of Fort Bragg.

All phases of degree work of the order were exemplified by the various chapters. This followed the ritualistic opening by the Sanford chapter. Other features of the program were addresses by Mrs. Joyce B. Finlator, of Winston-Salem, worthy grand matron, J. L. Neely, of Hamlet, worthy grand patron, Mrs. Mary Weatherly, of Franklinville, worthy grand secretary, George R. Bennett, superintendent of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Greensboro.

The district adopted as its objective for the year, the securing of funds for the erection of a chapel at the home.

At 6 p. m. a supper was served in the dining room of the Masonic Temple. A musical program was rendered by Mrs. M. J. McPhail, grand organist, Mrs. L. R. Sugg, Mrs. H. F. Makepeace, Mrs. Bessie Buchanan, and Mrs. Raymond Gregson, soloists, of Sanford. An invitation from Long Leaf Pine Chapter, Number 186, to hold the 1936 meeting with them was accepted.

TO ENFORCE COMPULSORY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

All school patrons, teachers and principals are requested to report all violations of the compulsory school law to Mrs. W. G. Brown, County Superintendent of Public Welfare, Carthage, who as chief school attendance officer for Moore county has the duty and responsibility of enforcement. School attendance has gradually improved for the past six years without particular attention being paid to enforcement laws. With full cooperation of all patrons and officials during the present year school attendance in the county should greatly improve, thereby increasing the efficiency of the schools.
