

Pupils Promise Best Stunt Night Ever

All Classes of Southern Pines School Preparing For Affair Next Friday Night

The biggest and best Stunt Night program ever produced at the Southern Pines School will be presented Friday night, November 15 at 8:00 o'clock in the School Auditorium. For the past two weeks 250 students have been practicing to make this year's event one that will long be remembered. The program is being sponsored by the Athletic Association and the proceeds will be used for playground equipment and the various school teams.

This year eleven stunts, one from each grade, will be presented. The stunts insofar as possible are original with each grade. More students participate than in any other school activity during the year. Secrecy shrouds many of the stunts, but a short resume of each with the title follows:

First Grade: "Autumn Leaves." In this stunt the children will be costumed to represent a forest in the fall.

Second Grade: "Down on the Farm" will give the impression of what happens there.

Third Grade: "Little Black Sambo," with a cast of seven, will be presented. The students are making their own scenery.

Fourth Grade: "Masterpieces of Artists" will present living pictures in an effort to show how and why they were created.

Fifth Grade: "Chorus of Folk Songs."

Sixth Grade: "Amateurs on Parade," a program which will rival Major Bowes' amateur night.

Seventh Grade: Nothing can be learned of this stunt except that time marches backward contrary to popular belief.

Eighth Grade: "I'll Dance at Your Wedding," is a promise that is not often kept but the freshmen promise to live up to its title.

Ninth Grade: Another secret, but the sophomores insist that history repeats itself.

Tenth Grade: The Juniors have gone romantic and are presenting an athletic wedding.

Eleventh Grade: The Seniors prepare for Stunt Night at a typical class meeting. Each student contributes what he can for the performance.

The Spinning Wheel in Aberdeen is open for the season with a beautiful line of Antiques.

C. P. & L. Sponsors Big Home Lighting Contest

Many Prizes For Boys and Girls Handy With Paste, Paint and Scissors

Paint boxes, paste pots and mother's best scissors will come into their full glory within the next few weeks when boys and girls get to work on the big home lighting contest to be sponsored by the Carolina Power and Light Company in cooperation with electrical dealers in the Sandhills.

The contest is featured by a large black and white drawing of a house with one outside wall taken away. The problem of the contestant is to select the proper lighting fixtures for every room in the house, paste the fixtures in the correct place and then color it all. There are no essays or slogans to write.

Several hundred dollars worth of electrical appliances make up the list of 133 prizes offered. The winners will have the privilege of selecting their own prizes. Each prize bracket includes several different appliances of about the same price range. These prizes include electric ranges, refrigerators, and water heaters, lamps, clocks, irons, toasters, percolators, waffle irons, electric cookers, and many other appliances.

Entry blanks and all necessary material except the paints, paste and scissors are being delivered to every family in this vicinity, but if any boys and girls failed to get theirs, all they need do is call at the Carolina Power and Light Company or any cooperating electrical dealer and additional copies will be given them. The contest lasts until December 10th.

SIMON NEWCOMB ELECTED TO THE HALL OF FAME

omy first became apparent. According to Clementsport legend the boy Newcomb would sneak away from his chores, slide down the well-rope and hide at the bottom of the well to study the stars in the daytime.

The results of his work have been adopted by almost all countries in their naval almanacs. Among his other contributions are his catalogue of the standard stars; his theory of the motion of the moon, which added much to celestial dynamics, and important works on the Uranian and Neptune systems.

He first came to this country in 1853 at the age of eighteen, being graduated from Harvard University five years later. He taught mathematics and astronomy in the United States Naval Academy and Johns Hopkins University. He died in Washington on July 11, 1909, and was given a military funeral, having been made a rear-admiral by an act of Congress in 1906.

Birthplace Marked
A monument to mark the birthplace of Simon Newcomb at Wallace, Nova Scotia was unveiled August 30th. A seven-foot stone "cairn" with inscription on a bronze tablet set into it. For the ceremony a platform seating one hundred had been erected and it was estimated that the throng numbered two thousand. The Governor of Nova Scotia was there to represent King George V and with him were the Premier and Chief Justice of the Province. The American Minister to Canada, Mr. Armour, travelled from Atlanta, with his wife to deliver his first public address on the friendly relations between the two countries as exemplified by the occasion.

The Nova Scotian-born U. S. Member of Congress from New Jersey, Charles A. Eaton, and his brother Cyrus, a prominent banker of Cleveland, O., also took part as did, of course many scientific men of both countries. All attended a banquet given the previous evening. A letter of praise and appreciation from Einstein was read.

Mrs. McGee was unable to be present, but the family was represented by her two sisters, Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Wilson, each accompanied by a son and a daughter. Both these ladies are frequent visitors to Southern Pines.

Theatre

At Pinehurst

"Mutiny on the Bounty," the attraction for the formal opening of the Pinehurst Theatre Monday, November 11th, matinee and night, is one of the most spectacular pictures M.G.M. has ever made. The most thrilling adventure of the Eighteenth Century now becomes the greatest adventure of the Twentieth Century. If the motion picture camera had been in use 150 years ago, no more authentic nor thrilling record of the amazing exploits of H. M. S. Bounty and the historical mutiny could have been recorded than will be seen in this saga of the seas. Charles Laughton surpasses all his other masterful performances as the tyrannical disciplinarian, the cruel but dauntless Captain Bligh. Clark Gable portrays Fletcher Christian, the young officer who leads the mutiny. Franchot Tone enacts the part of Midshipman Byam who supports Gable's insurrection. Reserved seats are now on sale at the Carolina Hotel and Carolina Pharmacy.

A kissless bride, craving affection, starts the grandest fun since the walls of Jericho fell in "It Happened One Night" with the same star. Claudette Colbert, as the lovelorn secretary in "She Married Her Boss" is the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, November 13th, matinee and night. After her marriage to her employer, the battle rages with no holds barred except kissing in the clinches. And the secretary's disappointment when she discovers the romance she dreamed about was merely a dream, and how she eventually makes it a reality, create some most intensely humorous situations.

With Dick Powell and Ann Dvorak singing and romancing, Fred Allen and Patsy Kelly indulging in a hilarious feud, and Paul Whiteman and his band, Rubinoff, and the Yacht Club Boys assisting in the general hilarity and tunefulness, "Thanks a Million," the new 20th Century production brings the season's top mirth and melody production to Pinehurst Friday November 15th, matinee and night. The picture, replete with catchy new tunes by Gus Kahn and Arthur Johnston, follows the cockeyed adventures of a tanktown show troupe headed by Fred Allen.

At Southern Pines

Miriam Hopkins, Edward B. Robinson and Joel McCrea enact a strange and violent triangle against the tumultuous background of life on the "Barbary Coast," in Samuel Goldwyn's colorful production of that title which is the attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, November 11th, 12th, 13th, with a Tuesday matinee. Miss Hopkins is seen as Swan, a beautiful girl who is stranded in this city of gold, mad, love-hungry men and becomes queen of the Bella Donna, a notorious cafe run by Louis Chamalis, a man as ruthless as he is powerful.

Cecil B. DeMille's "The Crusades" the stirring story of the conquest of the Holy Land and of the romance between Richard Coeur de Lion, King of England and Berengaria, Princess of Navarre, is the attraction at Southern Pines Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 14, 15, 16 with a Saturday matinee. A cast of more than 10,000 persons is headed by Loretta Young as Berengaria and Henry Willcox as Richard. "The Crusades" is DeMille's latest addition to the series begun with "The Ten Commandments" and including "The King of Kings" and "The Sign of the Cross." Battle scenes, a massing of human beings in a fashion never before attempted, an expenditure of more than $2,000,000, make it probably the most spectacular film that has emerged from Hollywood.

LAND HENDRICKS

Miss Sarah Louise Hendricks and James Land were married in Fayetteville last Sunday afternoon, the Rev. J. S. Snyder, a retired Baptist minister who performed the same ceremony for Mr. Land's father, officiating. There were no attendants, and only members of their immediate families and close friends were present. The bride was dressed in brown with accessories to match and wore a shoulder corsage of miniature chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Land is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin Hendricks of Hamlet, and formerly made her home in Aberdeen. Mr. Land is employed by the DeLuxe Pressing Club of Aberdeen. The young couple are making their home at present with Mrs. Mary Campbell in Aberdeen.
