FARM ALMANAC, FACTS BOOK PUT OUT BY FORD

Publication of a "Farm Almanac and Facts Book" which will be distributed to the rural population in all parts of the country was announced today by the Ford Motor Company.

The book is of a convenient pocket size, containing 48 pages. It is unusual in makeup and content, presenting an extensive array of handy tables, statistics and charts for the assistance of the farmer and business man. Other sections are designed to aid the farm wife.

This first Ford Almanac is published for 1936 and is now being distributed. It carries a readily available calendar on the back cover and contains tables showing the time of rise and set of sun and moon in all parts of the country every day of the year. Other helpful and interesting astrological and astronomical information is included.

FOUR BOYS ACCUSED OF ROBBING VASS STORE

Four boys giving their names as Bill Gentry of Roxboro, Route 2, Johnny and Russell Rarrow and Bill Barbour of Norfolk were lodged in the Moore county jail on Sunday to await a hearing in juvenile court on a charge of swiping three pairs of shoes from the window of Beasley's Department Store in Vass. The boys range in age from twelve to seventeen years.

The glass in one of the front windows was cracked, and the boys are alleged to have removed a piece large enough that they could reach through and remove the shoes. Their parents were notified of the occurrence, but on Tuesday at noon no communication had been received from them.

NEW BOOKS RECEIVED BY HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

During the last week a few new books, some bought and others donated, were received by the Southern Pines library.

The most important of these, "New Careers for Youth," by Walter B. Pitkin, was given by James Spring, a student of the high school. This book, pertaining to vocational guidance, was recently published. Another, given by Mrs. Hart, is the historical novel of the Civil War, "So Red The Rose" by Stark Young.

Books bought by the school were: "Cabins in the Laurel," by Sheppard; "The Story of America in Pictures," published by Collins and Bowers; "He Went With Marco Polo," by Louise Kent and "The Wolf Song," a historical novel by Hubbard.

WORK NEARS COMPLETION ON NEW SCHOOLING COURSE

Work is practically completed on the new schooling course for steeplechase horses on two of Pinehurst's polo fields. Four brush jumps have been constructed. This course will be used for schooling hunt race horses during the winter season, especially those wintering in Pinehurst in preparation for the second annual Sandhills Steeplechase and Racing Association events on March 14th.

BILL PASSES CONGRESS FOR BONUS PAYMENT

The House of Representatives passed the Senate's baby bond bonus bill on Wednesday, and the measure went to the White House for the signature or veto of the President. The bill calls for payment in $50 bonds, cashable on demand by veterans of the World War, after June 15th. There are 3,500,000 veterans eligible for this adjusted compensation, necessitating the raising of more than two billion dollars by the government.

EDWARD VIII SUCCEEDS TO THRONE OF ENGLAND

Edward VIII was proclaimed King of England on Wednesday following the death of his father, King George V, and began the 39th rule of the British people since the Norman conquest. King George passed away on Monday night after a week's illness, and his body will lie in state in Westminster Hall until Monday, with funeral services to follow on Tuesday at Windsor.

World Bridge Olympic Will Be Played Here

Local Bridge Players Invited to Participate in Event at The Carolina Hotel February 4

All local bridge players are being invited to participate in the fifth annual World Bridge Olympic Tuesday, February 4, at 8:01 p. m., at the Carolina Hotel. This announcement is made by Mrs. Daisy Wisdom, associate Culbertson bridge teacher, who has been selected by the Olympic Committee of New York City as game captain for the Sandhills community.

The World Bridge Olympic is unique and regarded as the most interesting annual event in bridge activities. Each year the same sixteen hands, at the same hour, are played throughout the world. This year's hands have been selected by 22 of America's foremost bridge players, including Mr. and Mrs. Ely Culbertson, Theodore Lightner, Vladimir Von Zedwitz, Harold Vanderbilt and others.

Foremost among the attractive prizes are the two famous $10,000 World Championship trophies. In addition to these, many beautiful trophies will be awarded to winners in every state by the Olympic committee.

The customary fee of $1.00 per player has been waived by Mrs. Wisdom who desires to give her portion of the card fees complimentary to the Sandhills duplicate bridge players. The entry fee, therefore, will be reduced to 50 cents per player, which covers actual cost of supplies required for this coming event.

The management of the Hotel Carolina has joined in the enthusiasm of having their first Olympic tournament and will offer additional prizes.

Mrs. Wisdom reports that her last experience as Olympic game captain was on the S. S. Aquitania, off the coast of Algiers. The passengers included many outstanding bridge players and an intense interest was created. One of the high scores on board was won by Harold C. Richard, paired with Mrs. E. Marshall Field. Mr. Richard has served on every contract bridge committee in formulating laws used throughout the bridge world.

Owing to the necessity of advance orders of sealed hands sent from New York, which may not be opened until eight o'clock Tuesday evening, February 4, reservations cannot be accepted later than Friday, January 31.

All players who are interested in this annual bridge classic are invited to communicate with Mrs. Wisdom, at the Hotel Carolina.

DOGS POISONED?

A number of dogs on Weymouth Heights have been ill during the past week, causing residents to suspect they may have been poisoned. The authorities are investigating.
