

Mrs. Page Has Narrow Escape in Auto Mishap

Car Is Shoved 150 Feet by Train Without Turning Over.—Two Chandler Cars Damaged

Three motor accidents marred the week-end for a number of prominent residents of the Sandhills, though fortunately no one was injured. One of them was one of the strangest reported in this vicinity in some time. On Saturday morning Mrs. Robert N. Page, jr., of Aberdeen was driving her car across Doub's crossing in Aberdeen, crossing the Seaboard tracks between two freight cars on a siding. A switching engine appeared as if from nowhere, struck her car amidships and shoved it 150 feet down the tracks. Although she expected it to overturn at any moment, it remained upright due to slippery snow, and except for temporarily shattered nerves and slight damage to the car no harm was done. Ralph Chandler, manager of the Carolina Power and Light Company's office in Southern Pines, was not so fortunate. His new sedan skidded on the highway near Raleigh directly into the path of an oil truck and was almost completely demolished. On the same day another car belonging to Mr. Chandler and driven by his son-in-law, Richard F. Tariton of Southern Pines, treasurer of the Kiwanis Club here, was struck by a milk truck on Connecticut avenue, Southern Pines, and badly damaged.

COMMUNITY WELFARE PLANS BENEFIT PARTY ON MARCH 3

The Community Welfare Association of Pinehurst held its annual meeting Friday, Feb. 21, at the home of Mrs. Leonard A. Tufts. Reports for the year were made and an interesting discussion held as to the relative necessity, in budgeting for the coming year, of school lunches for the undernourished and underprivileged, of clothes for children insufficiently clothed to attend school and of medical or surgical care for the incapacitated wage-earners. As each of these three calls for expenditures, when discussed, seemed of paramount importance, it was voted to leave the decision to the executive committee of three, which is composed of Mrs. Leonard Tufts, the Rev. T. A. Cheatham and the Rev. A. J. McKelway.

Mrs. Leonard Tufts was reelected chairman for the year and has asked Mr. Cheatham and Mr. McKelway to serve with her again as executive committee. It was voted to have a benefit party on Tuesday, March 3, at The Carolina Hotel.

Six elderly white people are being permanently supplied with small food orders; also two families had food for a short period. Among the Negroes four families were given milk for from 5 to 9 months; this was in cases where the children had been exposed to tuberculosis. Eight Negro families have been given temporary help with food orders. Clothes and shoes have been supplied needy school children and some families as far as funds would allow. The following is the report of receipts and disbursements:

DEBATING TEAM ORGANIZED AT SOUTHERN PINES SCHOOL

This year for the first time a debating club is being organized in the Southern Pines School. The team will participate in the State debating contest on the question: Resolved, That the Several States Should Provide for the Socialization of Medicine. Mr. Freeman is coaching the club and those aspiring for places on the team are Ruth Thompson, Eleanor Harloe, Bertha Fowler, James Spring, James Ritchie, Charles Phillips, and J. D. Sitterson. The team will be composed of four regulars and two alternates. They will be chosen during the coming week.

This team will debate against teams of Siler City and Troy, the first competition taking place on March 27. If the local team wins both of these contests, it will compete at Chapel Hill for the Aycock Cup.

Favor Plan to Introduce Bible Study in School of Moore County

Local Ministers to Conduct Courses if Recommendation of Principals is Approved

Principals of the various high schools of Moore county assembled in the Educ Club meeting went on record as unanimously approving the recommendation of the Board of Education that, beginning with the school year 1936-37, elective courses in Bible shall be offered in all high schools in the county. This was approved along with certain rules set down by the board governing the courses, one of which is that said courses are to be taught by local ministers or their representatives in each high school area without cost to the state, county or school district. "I think it is the greatest opportunity that has been presented to the ministers in Moore county to contact the young people and influence them in better living," said County Superintendent H. Lee Thomas in commenting on the action.

Other provisions are that two courses may be offered in each school and that all scheduled Bible courses completed according to the regular accredited State high school standards shall carry full credit in the same basis as other high school courses. Credit not exceeding two units will be given.

Said Bible courses shall be strictly under the supervision of the high school principal and superintendent of the administrative unit, and any principal may with the approval of the superintendent refuse credit for any such courses that in his judgment fail to meet accredited high school courses.

Undenominational

The board stipulates that all courses shall be based upon the broad moral and spiritual principles of the Bible, and denominational and controversial questions avoided.

These courses will be placed on the daily programs of all high schools in the county, and will be taught in those places where the ministers wish to take advantage of the opportunity. While the board specifies that these courses shall be strictly elective, Mr. Thomas thinks that they will be very popular and that a great many boys and girls will elect them.

The proposition was started by the Sandhill Ministerial Association in November and the action was taken at the request of this organization.

Other business transacted in this meeting of the Educ Club, held in the Carthage Hotel on Thursday evening, was the induction into office of E. A. West to succeed F. W. Webster as president, and E. A. Alexander to succeed Ralph Wallace as secretary-treasurer. A delicious dinner was served.

LOCAL GIRLS BEAT ELISE BUT BOYS' TEAM LOSES

The last basketball game of the season was witnessed by a large group of supporters who crowded into the Southern Pines School auditorium. They saw the local girls come through by the overwhelming score of Southern Pines 39, Elise 9. The leaders for Southern Pines were Maples, who scored 14 of the total points, with Cameron next with nine. The boys were not so lucky. Elise was the victor by one point. 29 to 28. Stroud led the local team with 12 points and Grover had nine. This defeat fortunately has no effect on the Southern Pines standing in the tournament, the boys being in second place.

KANNAPOLIS VICTORIOUS

The Southern Pines cagers journeyed to Kannapolis Friday to meet the Towel City boys in a return game that resulted in a 31-32 win for the Little Wonders.

Minus the services of two of their star players, Bob Beck and Frank Buchan, the local quint displayed gameness that kept the Kannapolis lads in constant danger until the final whistle. Bonds and Leazer were outstanding for Kannapolis while Stroud and Newton were best for the losers.

BREAKS COLLARBONE

Richard Wallach, who, with Noel Laing, has been schooling steeplechase horses in Southern Pines this winter, suffered a broken collarbone when his mount went down at one of the jumps in the race meeting at Camden, S. C., on Saturday. Wallach rode the winner in the Sandhills Cup event over timber in the inaugural meeting of the Sandhills Steeplechase and Racing Association here last spring.

Raid of Raids

Officers Capture 250-Gallon "Still" on West End-Hoffman Road; Arrest One

The raid of raids was made by Moore county officers on Monday night when they located a distillery about a mile off the West End-Hoffman road between the Carolina Power and Light sub-station and the Manice orchard.

A steamer outfit of approximately 250-gallon capacity was taken over by the officers along with approximately 10,000 gallons of mash, 50 gallons of liquor, and a ton of sugar. One of the two alleged operators was captured, a white man who gave his name as Charlie Kime of Liberty.

By the still were 132 empty 5-gallon tin cans and 236 100-pound sugar sacks from which the contents had been used.

Indications were that the plant had been running day and night. The operators had a tent and camping equipment on the grounds. Although there are not many houses in the territory immediately surrounding the location, there was a plain road leading to the place.

Kime was lodged in the Moore county jail Monday night and on Tuesday was turned over to Federal authorities. Officers returned to the scene of the unlawful activities on Tuesday morning to complete their work of tearing down the plant. Those making the raid were Officers Grimm, Currie, Knight, Slack and Lambert.

VASS LEAP YEAR PARTY SOCIAL EVENT OF YEAR

Outstanding among the social events of many seasons was the leap-year party held on Wednesday evening when a bevy of the most charming young men of Vass were entertained by local young women at a theatre party in Sanford. The group motored to the neighboring town in automobiles.

A. M. Calhoun, tall and debonair, was becomingly attired in an imported brown ensemble cut foot-length. He wore a modish felt hat, which he removed upon entering the theatre. With him was Katharine McMillan, Albert Graham, petite and graceful, wore a dark, tailored outfit with a light-colored shirt with attached collar. His only ornament was the tie-clasp, which he wore partially concealed. Ethel Kirby was his escort.

Attractive "Pal" Eurey was never lovelier than on this occasion when the perfection of his blond coloring was effectively brought out by a shirt of pastel shade, which he wore with darker accessories. He was escorted by Katharine Graham. Among others attractively gowned were Howard Callahan, who was with Agnes Smith; Clifton Blue, whose escort was Anna Laubscher; "Pete" McRae, who was with Myrtle McMillan; Preston Matthews, who was escorted by Helen Klingenschmidt, and Crawford Evans, Mary Frank McMillan.

After the show, the girls took their guests to a nearby parlor for refreshments.
