Dramatic Club To Present Plays Mar. 11

A Russian tragedy and an American comedy will be the two contrasting plays given by the Southern Pines High School Dramatic Club Wednesday, March 11, at 8:15 in the School auditorium.

The tragedy, "Highness," deals the escape of one of the nobility during the period just after the Revolution in Russia. Character portrayals will be given by Ruth Richardson, Winifred Kelly, Lawrence Williams and Tom Hardwick. This play will later be entered in the preliminary State contest to be held at Fayetteville. Raleigh, Clinton, Southern Pines and Fayetteville will compete in this and the winner go to Chapel Hill.

The comedy, "Rich Man, Poor Man," will follow immediately after the tragedy. The role of Emma, the girl who runs a thrift shop, will be played by Mary Jane Woodward. James Spring will take the part of Peter, in love with Emma. The supporting cast is made up of the following: Ruth Thompson, Virginia Stevick, Ellenore Eddy, Eleanor Harloe, Peggy Graves, Sue Milliken, Jane Musser, Ernestine Bailey, Charles Ross and Harry Adams. Reid Bailey is technical director of the two plays.

The admission for the plays is 35 cents for adults, 25 cents for children, and 50 cents for reserved seats.

Theatre

Charlie Chaplain in "Modern Times," the comedian's long-awaited comedy, is playing a return engagement by request at the Pinehurst Theatre Monday, March 9th, matinee and night. Almost two years in production, Chaplain's first picture in almost five years is also his most pretentious. Like its predecessor, "City Lights," "Modern Times" is without dialogue, but boasts some novel sound effects. The story, written by Chaplain and the first time he has ever worked from a prepared script, is said to involve him in the most hilarious situations of his entire career. As an added attraction is Popeye in "Brotherly Love."

Five new stars were added at one swoop to the Hollywood firmament when Darryl F. Zanuck secured the adorable Dionne Quintuplets to head the cast of his "The Country Doctor," the grand new human-interest picture which is the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, March 11th, matinee and night. Everything that has ever been said and written about these marvelous babies pales into insignificance beside the actual sight of them playing and cooing, acting real roles in a real story and surrounded by such Hollywood stars as Jean Hersholt, June Lang, Michael Whalen, Slim Summerville and Dorothy Peterson.

Clark Gable as the husband, Myrna Loy as his wife, and Jean Harlow as the lovely secretary who innocently finds herself in the reluctant role of "the other woman," provides one of the greatest screen triangles in the history of romantic films. It has been achieved in "Wife Versus Secretary," the attraction at Pinehurst Friday, March 13, matinee and night. Clark Gable further proves his ability to make firmer his footing among the stars by stepping from such rugged and vigorous roles as Fletcher Christian in "Mutiny on the Bounty" and Captain Gaskell in "China Seas," with his newest performance as the modern business executive in "Wife Versus Secretary." Jean Harlow, too, departs from her usual type of roles to play Gable's secretary, the sage yet lovely business confidante who eventually prevents the total wreckage of his happy martial life. As Gable's wife, Myrna Loy displays her ability to portray the ideal screen wife of a man of millions.

Graphic Outlines of History by H. G. MELROY

THE JAMESTOWN SETTLEMENT

The homes of the Jamestown settlement were built in small groups so that greater protection might be had from the Indians. These were called stockades. High wooden walls were placed around the entire group. Around the inside of these walls ran a platform from which all combat was carried on. It is practically impossible to fully realize or appreciate the extent to which our staff really serves—until the necessity makes it so.
