Britton-Stone Wedding A wedding of interest to society in this state and Massachusetts was solemnized last Saturday at noon, when Miss Elinor Stone became the bride of O. C. Britton, Jr., of Charlotte. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stone on Linganore place, Charlotte, and was attended only by members of the two families. The vows were spoken by the Rev. Luther Little, pastor of the First Baptist church, in the drawing room, before an altar of ferns and palms. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in an imported costume of aquamarine blue, with white fox collar and ox-blood accessories. Her flowers were a shower of orchids. Miss Ruth Stone attended her sister as maid of honor, and was attired in a blue and white print, with a corsage of gardenias. Jack Britton of Cameron, was his brother's best man. Following the ceremony, a beautifully appointed, informal breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Britton left for Palm Beach, Fla., where they will spend two weeks. On their return they will be at home at 500 Queens road, Myers Park, Charlotte. Mrs. Britton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stone, former residents of Boston, Mass., and is one of Charlotte's favorites. She received her education at the Institute Matenon, Paris, France, and later was a student at Duke University. Mr. Britton is the son of Mrs. O. C. Britton and the late Mr. Britton of Cameron. He graduated from Duke University in 1935, where he was a member of the Pi Kappa Phi fraternity. He is associated with the Royal Manufacturing company, with headquarters in Charlotte. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to the recent death of the groom's father. The following announcement was received by friends: "Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Temple, a son, Paul David, weight 8 1/4 pounds, February 18." Mr. Temple was superintendent of school here for several years, he and Mrs. Temple taught in the school for some five years. Circle No. 2 of the Presbyterian Woman's Auxiliary met with Miss Annie Borst on last Friday afternoon. Bible study by Miss Rachael Gilchrist was used as devotional. Topic for the afternoon was Africa. "The March of Hours in Africa," by Mrs. Martha B. Worth was uniquely presented by Mrs. L. B. McKeithen. Congaled salad, with wafers and coffee was served.
