

Marie Houston Sings Here on Monday Night

Will Give Benefit Recital for St. Anthony's Church at High School

Marie Houston, American lyric soprano will give a benefit performance for Saint Anthony's church on Monday, March 30th at 8:30 p. m. in the Southern Pines High School Auditorium. This is really the first opportunity the members of all of the denominations have had to cooperate in a benefit for Saint Anthony's and the spirit of co-operation is very evident. Father Williams, the new pastor, has made a most favorable impression among all classes here and a desire to show good will has prompted the holding of this benefit.

Miss Houston is an artist of the highest rank. Last Sunday night she sang at the Mid-Pines Club and a large throng greeted her. It was pronounced by many as the most artistic and finest performance of its kind ever heard in the Sandhills.

Tickets are on sale and it would be well to secure reserved seats early.

CHURCH NOTES

"The Way Out" is the subject of the sermon Sunday morning at The Church of Wide Fellowship by the minister, Dr. C. Rexford Raymond. The Elon College Singers present a musical program at 7:45 p. m.

"Reality" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon at the Christian Science church on Sunday morning.

The Rev. J. Fred Stimson will preach on "Think About God" at the Southern Pines Baptist Church Sunday morning. In the evening Dr. T. A. Cheatham, rector of the Village Chapel in Pinehurst, will make his annual pilgrimage to Mr. Stimson's church and deliver the sermon.

Program of Plays and Music by Ark Pupils

Friends of School Hear Rhythm Band and See Youthful Actors in Presentations

The pupils of The Ark, directed by Mrs. Millicent Hayes, principal, gave a delightful program of plays, recitations and music at the school last Friday morning. Besides songs, the program included orchestral music by the "Rhythm Band" in which the children direct and play simple percussion instruments.

The plays were especially interesting, some of which were written by the children, and all reflecting their studies in Ancient and Medieval History. In addition to these historical plays, the youngest group presented a pastoral play, entitled "Billy Bang."

The program was as follows: "Boadicea," "Alfred and the Cakes," "Arachne," "Richard and Blondel," "Elizabeth and Raleigh," followed by the musical numbers.

A number of the school parents and their guests attended, among them Mr. and Mrs. John Sibley, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Paul Barnum, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Watt, Mrs. Townsend Latting, Mrs. Leonard Tufts, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ewing, Mrs. Jamie Dickie, Mrs. Emmet French, Mrs. M. G. Nichols, Mrs. Edgar Chapman, Mrs. Barkalow, J. Carlton Wicker, Morrel Bentley, Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. Dumham, Mrs. Archibald Davis, Miss Louise Haynes, Mrs. James Boyd and James Boyd, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson.

IN RECORDER'S COURT

Neill and Arch Blue, charged with assaulting Eugene Crutchfield with bricks, were found guilty of engaging in an affray. Their 30-day sentence were to be suspended upon payment of the costs and good behavior for a year.

Alonza Sheffield, charged with the larceny of an old model Whippet automobile, entered a plea of nolo contendere. Prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of the costs, the defendant having expressed his willingness to pay the costs.

Edward Comer was given a 30-day road sentence to be suspended upon payment of a fine of $25 and the costs on charges of driving an automobile carelessly, recklessly and at an excessive rate of speed. He gave notice of appeal to the Superior court and bond was fixed at $200.

POCAHONTAS

The first Christian convert in Virginia was Pocahontas, the Indian girl who saved the life of Captain John Smith. She married John Rolfe, an English subject and was thereby converted into a Christian. She was received with great attentions at the Court and from all those below it.
