

Four in County Lose Driver's Licenses

Careless, Reckless and Drunken Operation of Cars Severely Dealt with by Recorder

Four men heard the unwelcome words, "driver's license revoked for twelve months," spoken in connection with judgment in their cases on Monday in Recorder's court, and one, Herman Harris, colored of Pinehurst, found guilty of careless and reckless driving and an assault with a deadly weapon, gave notice of appeal to the Superior Court from his three months road sentence. He was placed under $300 bond and his license to drive was revoked pending the appeal.

Otis Simms, colored of Southern Pines, drew 60 days, to be suspended upon payment of a fine of $50 and the costs after being found guilty of drunken, reckless and careless driving and driving with defective brakes.

The third of the group was A. H. McKenzie, white of near Eastwood, who was charged with drunken driving in Carthage. His 60-day sentence was to be suspended upon payment of $50 and the costs.

George McLeod, colored of Vass, was the fourth to have his license revoked, his offense being drunken driving. He chose the $50 fine and costs in preference to 60-days on the roads.

Ernest Hamlin, colored of Aberdeen, having failed to comply with the judgment of the court in non-support case tried in September, must immediately begin serving his 60-day sentence.

Bernice Smith, white of Hemp, gave notice of appeal to Superior Court from his 6-months sentence imposed for charges of trespass, resisting arrest and being drunk and disorderly.

Edward Fisher, colored of Southern Pines, was bound to Superior Court on charges of breaking and entering a dwelling house and taking therefrom the sum of forty cents.

Alex McKenzie, white of Hemp, was given 30-days for public drunkenness, but the sentence was to be suspended upon payment of the costs and upon condition of good behavior for twelve months.
