Theodore Roosevelt Estate Pays $10,000

State Banking Department Collects $30,000 in Page Trust Co. Stock Assessments

Two checks aggregating $30,000 in payment of stock assessments due the Page Trust Company were received this week by the State Banking Department and will be of "great assistance" in the success of the department's effort to pay another dividend to depositors of the defunct bank. Gurney P. Hood, State Commissioner of Banks, announced Tuesday.

One of the checks was in payment of a $10,000 assessment against the estate of the late President Theodore Roosevelt and other other was for $20,000 against Robert T. McCoon, an employe of Roosevelt and Son.

It was necessary to sue the estate of Theodore Roosevelt in order to collect the assessment. The estate won a decision in the New York Supreme Court, equivalent to the North Carolina Superior Court, but the banking department, on appeal, won in the Appellate division of the Supreme Court. The estate appealed, but the banking department won a six to two decision in the Court of Appeals.

SOUTHERN PINES DEFEATED IN DEBATE AT TROY

The State-wide debate preliminary contests were held last Friday at the Siler City, Troy and Southern Pines High schools.

The negative teams from all three schools emerged victorious, the local team winning from Troy at Siler City. Siler City affirmative, debating here with Troy, was defeated while the negative team from that city won over Southern Pines at Troy.

This eliminates these respective schools in the State elimination as both teams must win before they can land a berth in the finals at Chapel Hill.
