Beauties In The Kitchen

All that is modern in the house is personified in the 1936 Frigidaire which recently went on display here. With the revolutionary "meter-miser," a mechanical unit that cuts operating cost to the bone, the new Frigidaire offers hitherto unheard of economy, style, capacity and freezing ability. Lilyan Craft, left, demonstrates it for Jerry Mitchell, a visitor to Frigidaire's famous experimental kitchen.

When Goldstein Really Cut Loose

By IRVIN S. COBB

ACCORDING to Montague Glass, who specialized in stories of the cloak and suit trade, a jobber in this line suffered a bereavement. His wife up and died on him. Possibly because it was neighborhood gossip that the couple had not lived together very happily the bereft one felt incumbent upon him to manifest an unusual degree of distress, the theory being that this excess of grief on his part would silence the tongues of the slanderers and put to eternal rest the rumors of domestic infelicity.

Two days after the interment the husband, dressed all in black and wearing a broad mourning-band on his left arm, was passing on his way through Mercer Street to his place of business. A fellow-jobber halted him and without preamble spoke as follows:

"Honest, Goldstein, I got to say it—for you I am ashamed that you should carry on the way that you did at your wife's funeral. As a mark of respect for you I went by your house day before yesterday and the way you acted—well, I could only say again: As one business man to another I am ashamed for you that you should act so."

"A wife, ain't it? They come, they go; you get 'em, you lose 'em. That's life, ain't it? So why, then, when you lose one should you carry on so positively, absolutely could not understand."

"Did you maybe also come by the cemetery?" inquired the widower.

"Sothin'ly not," said his friend. "I'm a business man and it ain't so that I could spare a whole day running way over on Long Island to a cemetery. I came by your house like I said before and when I seen how you carried on that for me was sufficient. Right off I came away disgusted."

"You think I carried on at the house, huh?" stated Mr. Goldstein.

"You should a-come by the cemetery. That's where I raised hell!"
