The Week in Vass

At the Vass Presbyterian Church last Sunday evening an open meeting of the Y. P. C. was held with other young people of the community as invited guests. The topic was "Winning Young Africa" and Miss Mary Frank McMillan was leader. The high light of the program was a talk by Mrs. J. E. Snow of Cameron in which she told in an interesting way of the home life in Africa, and pictures of African scenes were on display. Mrs. Snow spent several years of her childhood in south Africa and was able to give many interesting facts about the people and their customs. Little Marilyn Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Wood, was hostess to a number of her friends on Thursday afternoon when she celebrated her fourth birthday. Games were enjoyed for a while and then the group was invited in for refreshments. There was a pretty white birthday cake with pink decorations and pink candles and delicious ice cream to accompany it. Marilyn's guests included her little brother, Billy, Faye Corbett, Billy Bob McGill, "Sonny" Moore, Vivian McMillan, Joan Chappell, and several little cousins from out of town.

Field Day was observed on Friday afternoon by the girls of the Vass-Lakeview High School under the direction of their athletic coach, Mrs. W. E. Gladstone, and the seniors came out victorious. The seniors won first places in two relay races and in a horseshoe game, while first honors in the potato race were captured by the eighth graders. In baseball, a team composed of juniors and freshmen defeated the seniors and sophomores by a score of 19 to 9. The winning team was as follows: Eva Ring, Rebecca Gardner, Jessie Thomas, Frances Bailey, Edith Matthews, Viola Briggs, Bettie Blevins, Gladys Causey, Ruby Richardson, Lula Pearl Morgan, Clarice Thomas and Margaret Bailey with Sarah Cameron as substitute. On the opposing team were Edna Earle Richardson, Alma Crouse, Grace Goodman,

Erestine Johnson, Gladys Cox, Pauline Jessup Hazel Coore, Marian McMillan, Doris McRae, Catharine Blue, and Marie Tyson of the seventh grade.

Why Gulf is the Gas for May

Birds are nesting. It's Spring . . . and it's the time of year to use Spring gas. The average temperature is several degrees higher than it was in April, and unless you're using a gas specially refined for Spring driving you're throwing dimes and dollars away. Get That Good Gulf Gasoline. Because it's "Kept in Step with the Calendar"—all of it goes to work, none of it goes to waste. Pull up at the Sign of the Orange Disc and try a tankful—today.
