Cameron Graduates Hear Dr. Clyde Erwin

Eighteen Awarded Diplomas at Exercises Held in School Auditorium

On Tuesday evening of last week, the graduation exercises took place in the school auditorium, which was filled to overflowing with patrons and friends of the school. Invocation was given by the Rev. M. D. McNeill, followed by a song, "The Old North State," by the audience. Supt. H. Lee Thomas presented certificates to a large class of seventh grade pupils. In a few, well-chosen words, Mr. Thomas introduced the commencement speaker, Dr. Clyde Erwin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Prof. R. F. Lowry presented diplomas to the following: Mary Smith, Jeanette Wooten, Marjorie Thomas, Margaret McDermott, Helen Barefoot, Ozelle Hardy, Elizabeth Thomas, Verlie Whitaker, Oliver Randsall, Mary Tucker, Margaret Stanley, Marie Parker, Kenneth Wooten, James Moses, Richard Wicker, Upton Smith, James McDonald and Herbert Spivey. Supt. Thomas presented scholarship gold medals to Miss Janet McDonald and Paul Parker, who tied for the coveted honor. To Miss Marie Parker a scholarship at Campbell College was presented, and Miss Margaret McDermott was awarded a scholarship at Shenandoah Institute. Little Miss Felicia Graham of Route 1 made the highest average for the year in the fifth grade.

The program closed with the benediction by the Rev. E. C. Durham of the Carthage Methodist Church.

CAMERON

On Wednesday afternoon of last week, Cameron and Sanford crossed bats on the Cameron diamond, with Cameron victorious.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Tharrington announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy Elizabeth, on May 3, in Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Tharrington taught this past year in Yadinville. They were members of the Cameron High School faculty in 1934-35.

Miss Nannie Gilchrist of Troy was week-end guest of her sister, Miss Rachel Gilchrist of Route 1.

William Parker of Washington, D. C., came down for the graduation of his sister, Miss Marie Parker, valedictorian of her class.

The exhibition of work done by the primary pupils of Mrs. R. F. Lowry astonished the many visitors during commencement. These little folks were almost equal to the fifth graders.

Sunday afternoon, while playing at the home of his parents near the Carolina Camp, Paul Wall, eight years of age, fell from a tree and was seriously injured. Dr. C. N. Eckerson rendered first aid and carried him to Lee County Hospital. The little fellow remained unconscious for several days. Although reported a trifle better, his condition is still critical.

Mesdames Loula Muse, Jewell Hemphill, A. J. McRae of New York, M. D. McIver and Miss Mamie Arnold attended the funeral of Mrs. Newton H. Smith of Asheville. Private services were held in the old Scotch Presbyterian Church, Buffalo at 6 o'clock, May 19, Tuesday evening. Interment was in the Buffalo Cemetery, where many of her ancestors are buried.

The Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill left Monday for Goldsboro where for several days they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Holmes.

Dr. O. G. Green, superintendent of the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville, who delivered the commencement address at Greenwood School on Thursday evening, was the supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thomas and family.

SCOUTS GIVE FAREWELL PICNIC TO NED BUSHBY

Fifteen Boy Scouts of Southern Pines Troop No. 2 gave one of their number a fine send-off for the summer on Monday evening. The Scouts gathered for a picnic at the home of Ned Bushby prior to his departure for Myrtle Beach.

There was a sumptuous spread under the umbrella tree on the lawn of the Bushby residence. The gathering was graced by the presence of a number of parents and the feast was enjoyed by them as well as by the boys. After the picnic the boys entered into games lead by Tommy Atkinson and all had a good time. One boy was heard to ask when the next boy was going away for the summer, not that he desired to lose another member but was anxious for a repetition of the feast and good time.

THE WEEK IN VASS

Mrs. Sarah M. McNeill left Friday to visit relatives at Raeford and in the Antioch community.

Mrs. Catharine Calcote, who had been with her son, the Rev. C. I. Calcote, and family since they came to Vass to make their home, returned to Richmond on Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Eliza Autrey of the Cranes Creek section has been critically ill at the home of her son, A. V. Autrey, in Varina, but her condition is now much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McCraney and Billy Bob McGill visited Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hemphill in Troy Sunday, and Mrs. Hemphill and baby returned with them to be here for the Vass-Lakeview commencement.

Mrs. A. G. Edwards was called to Raleigh last week on account of the illness of her father, J. S. Bundy, who suffered a paralytic stroke. A. G. Edwards, Jr., and Robert Laubscher visited Mr. Bundy and found him getting along very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Tickle and daughters, Maxine, moved to Vass last week from Southern Pines and are in the Beasley apartments. Mr. Tickle is with the Morrirstown Manufacturing Company.

Theatre

The nation's motion picture fans shouted a prompt "Yes" when Paramount teamed up Carole Lombard and Fred MacMurray for the first time in "Hands Across The Table" a short time back. So emphatic was the response that no time has been lost in casting them together again, in "The Princess Comes Across," which is the attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre Monday and Tuesday, 2 days, May 25 and 26 at 8:20 p. m. with a Tuesday matinee at 3:00. "The Princess Comes Across" is a bright, sparkling entertainment of the romantic comedy order. It presents Miss Lombard as a beautiful American girl who poses as a Swedish princess in order to land a film contract. Aboard a transatlantic liner, in which all the action of the picture takes place, she meets MacMurray, the leader of a swing band. The ship and the romance hardly get under way before the first of a pair of murders starts a chain of suspense and thrills maintained throughout. Music, provided by the ship's band aids the comedy and romantic scenes in maintaining the films light touch. And, by the way, Carole Lombard's imitation of Greta Garbo is alone worth the price of admission. As an added attraction, the "March Of Time" presents some unusually interesting topics, among which are the difficulties of the League of Nations in the present European crisis; the manner in which the railroads of this country are meeting the challenge of other transportation media, and a desatation on the relief situation as typified by the recent action in New Jersey legislative halls.

Jesting with a gun thrust in his ribs, romancing and playing pranks in the midst of dangerous murder investigations—these are the specialties of William Powell. In "The Ex-Mrs. Bradford," the attraction Thursday, Friday, Saturday, May 28, 29, 30 at 8:20 p. m. with a Saturday matinee at 3:00, in which he and Jean Arthur are co-starring, every opportunity is afforded him to show to the best those qualities which carried him to peak popularity as a screen sleuth in "The Thin Man." It is a comedy that is gayly refreshing. It is a tale of a man who tries not to fall in love again with his ex-wife but can't help doing so. Told against a background of sinister, melodramatic mystery, it is at the same time full of merry fun and offers rich entertainment values that sparkle with unusual qualities.

FOR STATE AUDITOR

Geo. Ross Pou

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

- A father, and a life-long friend of the schools. A farm-owner who knows the farmers' needs. A business executive of proven ability.

W. Kerr Scott

(of Alamance County) CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE

WORKING BACKGROUND

For ten and one-half years, Mr. Scott was a Farm Agent for the County of Alamance. His work during this period, in every phase of agricultural science applied to the soil, stands today as an indelible stamp of progress. His regime brought not only a revolution in practical service from the soil, but recognition to himself for mature judgment and experienced leadership.

Mr. Scott has championed his personal belief that agriculture and industry "hold hands" in the march of progress and the development of the State; that one is as vitally important as the other to the welfare and prosperity of every citizen. "Agriculture has been lagging—is lagging," he said. "When I said it is my intention to put a new and vitalizing life into the Department of Agriculture, I meant just that: that it needs revitalizing; that it needs new life and progressive leadership."
