SCOUTS GAIN POSSESSION OF LOG CABIN ON BETHESDA ROAD

Much interest is being manifested with the Southern Pines Boy Scouts, particularly Troop No. 2. The Rev. E. L. Barber has been chosen Scout Master, replacing Emmet Golden who recently resigned. The Scouts have organized a ball team and with the regular weekly meetings everyone is kept busy.

The full contingent of the troop is comprised of the following: Scout Master, the Rev. E. L. Barber; Assistant, Ralph Chandler, jr.; Junior Assistant, Alfred Chiswell; Treasurer, Tommy Atkinson; Scribe, Robert Lewis.

On the committee are the Rev. Edward F. Green, chairman; R. S. Durant, D. H. Turner, P. H. Frye, R. L. Chandler, James Swett and A. L. Adams.

Through the courtesy of the Rev. Fred Stimson and Francis Robinson the troop is now in possession of a very fine log cabin, located on the old Bethesda road on the farm jointly owned by these two men.

SCOUT COURT OF HONOR TO BE HELD IN PINEHURST

Graphic Outlines of History by H. G. McELROY

Penn Landing at His Colony
One of the most ardent Quakers was William Penn. Having influence with King Charles of England, he was granted not only the territory of Pennsylvania but also what is now Delaware. His settlement was begun in 1681, and prospered through his wise government.

Painstaking fidelity to details assures our service of being an accomplishment of dignity and charm.
