

SELECTION OF POSTOFFICE SITE FEW WEEKS OFF

Postmaster Frank Buchan of Southern Pines has received word that it may take several weeks before the arrival here of a representative of the Postoffice Department to inspect sites offered for the new federal building. So many new postoffices are on the government's building program at the present time that the department's men are unable to keep up with the work incident to selecting sites and preparing plans for construction.

George Rice Succeeds Capps as Seaboard Chief Traffic Officer

With Road Since 1911 He Has Served as Assistant to Retiring Boss Ten Years

New S. A. L. Official

GEORGE B. RICE

George B. Rice, nationally known railroad man and widely experienced freight executive, has been appointed Chief Freight Traffic Officer of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, with jurisdiction over the Freight Express, Agricultural and Industrial departments. Because of ill health, Charles R. Capps, Chief Traffic Officer, retires last week, after forty-eight years of distinguished service, according to an announcement made by L. R. Powell, Jr., and Henry W. Anderson, receivers.

Mr. Rice's advancement to the highest traffic executive position at the comparatively youthful age of 51 years is in recognition of his long experience, keen ability and progressive spirit. Starting his railroad career with the Southern Railway in 1901, he has gained wide experience in important positions with several of the leading railroads of the South. Of his thirty-five years of service, twenty-five have been spent with the Seaboard.

Entering the service of the Seaboard in 1911, he filled various important positions in the General Freight Agent's office, and the offices of the First Vice-President in Charge of Traffic and in 1926 became Assistant Freight Traffic Manager, in 1929 Freight Traffic Manager, and now Chief Freight Traffic Officer, with headquarters at Norfolk, Va.

C. E. Bell, Passenger Traffic Manager, will be in charge of the Passenger, Dining and Mail departments. Both Mr. Rice and Mr. Bell will continue the progressive policies with its network of lines covering six South-eastern states, and long distinguished for its courtesy and service was the first to operate air-conditioned trains in the South; the first to maintain traveling libraries for the benefit of towns and villages along its route, and one of the first in the country to place in effect low rail fares and pick-up and delivery freight service. Seaboard was also first to establish one-night-out passenger service from Eastern cities to Florida, with the world-famous Orange Blossom Special, eleven years ago.

(of "Showboat" fame) in all inimitable characterization of the almost perpetually inebriated and highly forgetful "doctor," and Jane Darwell.

As an added attraction, Popeye the Sailor will appear in his latest cartoon, "Let's Get Moving."

Bubbling with laughter and bursting with song roughish Jane Withers comes to Southern Pines Saturday, (one day only) August 1st, with the usual Saturday matinee, in her joyous hit, "Little Miss Nobody." The picture follows the adventures of a merry orphan through a series of escapades both hilarious and pathetic. Featured in the strong supporting cast are Jane Darwell, Ralph Morgan, Sara Haden, Harry Carey and Betty Jean Hainey. Jane is a mischievous, nameless orphan who wins "Trouble" for her first name. She tries to be good, but only succeeds in getting in bad. There's fun in all the escapades that keep her in hot water with the institution's matrons. There's drama in the situations whereby, discovering her own identity, she contrives to have her orphan pal adopted by Mr. Dexter (Ralph Morgan) who she knows is her own father.

One of the season's gayer photographs makes its debut at the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 27-28-29, with a Tuesday matinee, in "The Bride Walks Out", with Barbara Stanwyck in the stellar role, with a clever cast including the tow-headed Gene Raymond; the screen's outstanding man-about-town, Robert Young; and the exponents of the "dead-pan" brand of merriment, Helen Broderick and Ned Sparks. The family budget, important factor of modern life, is the basis for this hilarious entertainment. Revealing more difficulties in trying to balance their budget than the government ever dreamed of, the tale whirls dizzily from one comedy situation to another and winds up with a grand old-fashioned chase and a fight that lands the belligerent Mr. Raymond in jail. Needless to say, the plot of "The Bride Walks Out," concocted for laughing purposes only, deals with the matrimonial theory of a young civil engineer who is convinced that two can live as cheaply as one on $35.00 a week, and who will fight any one who disagrees with him—including his rebellious fiancée. The newlyweds eventually get their difficulties ironed out but not until they have left their audience weak with laughter.

Replete with the romance of the far North and filled with the drama of the lawless frontier, "White Fang", Jack London's great sequel to "Call of the North," is the attraction at Southern Pines Thursday and Friday (two days) July 30-31, with a matinee Thursday at 3:00 with Michael Whalen (recently seen in "The Poor Little Rich Girl") and Jean Muir heading an exceptional cast. "White Fang" takes up where London's "Call Of The Wild" left off and weaves a thrilling story of gold and greed, love and danger. Intermingled with the narrative is the biography of "Lightning," the mighty son of "Buck," the dog-star of "Call of the Wild," and a she-wolf. "White Fang" is a story of an appropriated goldmine, the ousting of the usurper, misunderstanding, against a background of romance and the manner in which a wolf-dog comes to love a man, forgetting his wild past.

A strong vein of humor runs through the story, handled expertly by Slim Summerville, as the gangling buddy of Whalen; Charles Winniger

for
---your livestock
---your poultry
---your dog

The animal that is worth having is worth feeding right. Not just feeding any old way but feeding properly.

Our line of feeds includes those from leading manufacturers in the country.

SPARTAN GRAINS for every farm purpose.

GAINES, and D and G Feed for the dog.

These feeds cost no more than promiscuous rations, but they give you far more for your money in nutrition and health for the animal.
