

The Week in Vass

Around eighty of the Bynum family gathered at Lakeview on Wednesday of last week for their third annual reunion and the occasion proved a most enjoyable one. A bounteous dinner was spread picnic style at 1:00 o'clock and following the invocation by T. R. Moffitt of Sanford, the feasting began.

After brief talks by several of the men, officers for the coming year were elected as follows: J. T. Bynum of Hope Mills, succeeding W. H. Keith of Vass, as chairman and Mrs. S. R. Smith of Vass, succeeding Miss Elizabeth Bynum of Hope Mills, as secretary-treasurer. The group decided to hold the next reunion at Lakeview on the second Sunday in August 1937.

All of the seven surviving daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bynum were present except Mrs. Minnie Bynum Patterson of Philadelphia, Miss.

Honoring Mrs. Clyde P. McMillan, a bride of the summer, Miss Katharine Graham and Mrs. C. L. Tyson entertained at a lovely shower at the home of Miss Graham on Friday evening. Attractive arrangements of summer flowers added to the charm of the living-room where the guests were received.

Following the serving of delicious refreshments, various ones were called on to perform certain stunts. Mrs. McMillan was asked to go into an adjoining room and gather in the clothes. Monday night will be "College Night", at which time college young people will discuss life in the higher institutions of learning and this will be followed by a talk on "What the Community Has a Right to Expect of its College Young People."
