With Alice Faye swinging torchy new tunes and romancing with Michael Whalen, Adolphe Menjou going daffy and roaming around in his nightie, Gregory Ratoff, the demon dialectician, mangling the English language, the king and queen of comedy, Ted Healy and Patsy Kelly, smashing all laugh records, and the Ritz Brothers bringing a new kind of musical clowning to the screen, "Sing, Baby, Sing" comes to the Southern Pines Theatre, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, August 17-18-19, with a Tuesday Matinee. A laugh-jammed, song-crammed scramble of stars, songs and show-stoppers, "Sing, Baby, Sing" starts crowding the laughs on the opening scenes and only the sizzling songs and romantic love-making provide interludes from the side-splitting mirth.

The Motion Picture Daily says that "Sing, Baby, Sing" merits top rung on the musical ladder. Its dialogue is witty, sparkling and smart and its tunes exceptionally good. The performances by the entire cast are smooth and ably executed, guided by directorial tempo and gusto which kept a preview audience roaring throughout from footlights to the rear of the balcony. They got an eye-ful and ear-ful of Alice Faye swinging her torchy new ditties. They howled as Menjou went flighty; they went ga-ga when the nit-wit Ritz Brothers went hot-cha; they laughed the roof off at Gregory Ratoff who shows the English language no mercy; they roared some more at Ted Healy and Patsy Kelly and they got a thrill from handsome romancing-about-town Michael Whalen.

Truly an all-star cast, including Franchot Tone, Cary Grant, Lewis Stone, Benita Hume, Reginald Mason, Inez Courtney, Greta Meyer and others, support Jean Harlow in her new picture "Suzy," which is the attraction Thursday and Friday, August 20-21, with a Thursday Matinee, which tells an electrifying story of an American chorus girl stranded in London at the outbreak of the World War and caught in a web of espionage. Different from any role in which Miss Harlow has ever appeared, it is one that she personally requested to do, and advance reports have it that the role is by far Miss Harlow's finest screen characterization. The picture was adapted from Herbert Gorman's best-seller novel and it races excitedly from London to Paris and the advanced airplane bases, on the Western Front. Benita Hume plays the bewitching spy; Lewis Stone is Andre's father; Inez Courtney is Suzy's friend and Greta Meyer is the airplane factory proprietress.

It was peculiarly fortunate that when Metro-Goldwyn Mayer determined to produce the picture called "His Brother's Wife", W. S. VanDyke was available to direct it. The picture comes to the Southern Pines Theatre, Saturday (one day only) August 22nd, with a Matinee at 3:00 P. M., with Hollywood's most romantic team Robert Taylor and Barbara Stanwyck heading a remarkably fine cast. VanDyke, of course, is a veteran not only of the camera but of jungle adventure, and "His Brother's Wife" is a drama of the tropical wilderness. VanDyke has resorted to his indelible memory of the steaming interior to produce an effect or realism that is truly astounding. Robert Taylor, right now the screen's most popular young star of the masculine ranks, has a daring role that he portrays with the daring it demands. He appears as a scientific explorer who falls in love with a beautiful red-headed girl on his last fling in civilization. His brother urges the boy to forget the girl and carry on with his expedition. He agrees and in her rebellion the girl marries the brother, and when he returns to find that the woman he loves is his brother's wife a dramatic vehicle is provided for these distinguished stars.

MOORE COUNTY HOSPITAL GIVES REPORT FOR 1935

superintendent, and Dr. F. L. Owen is the resident physician.

In the Hospital Auxiliary, the county is indeed fortunate as the women in this organization are untiring in their efforts of aid, both financially and materially. The Auxiliary is composed of four chapters, Aberdeen, Carthage, Pinehurst and Southern Pines, and has for its members those who are intensely interested in the welfare of the Hospital. Their financial contributions are of great importance.

There will be found elsewhere in this paper a contribution blank and the Directors desire to inform benefactors that gifts of securities, whether by personal contribution or bequest, will be most welcome, and will receive competent handling and care.

Resettlement What and Why

Editor's Note—This is question three of a series of questions and answers about the Resettlement Administration which are being published each week in The Pilot.

Is the size of the Administrative staff of Resettlement Administration justified in the light of the number of people helped?

Answer
The administrative staff of the Resettlement Administration is more than justified in the light of the help being given to the needy. The Resettlement Administration has helped over 700,000 families through loans and grants under its rehabilitation program. Nearly 3,000 families have been relocated from bad land to good land, and projects are now under development that will provide homes and farms for an additional 10,000. More than 16,000 families are living on the land being purchased by the Resettlement Administration for retirement from agriculture. Some will be able to move with the money they obtain from the sale of their land. Others will find work on the development projects that will be carried on to improve the land. Some 6,000 of them will receive further assistance from the Resettlement Administration in order to move to more profitable acres. In addition, a daily average of 55,000 men is employed on the land development projects; about 15,000 on the construction of resettlement projects. Altogether, well over 3,000,000 people are being helped by an administrative personnel of only 15,804 persons in Washington and throughout the country.

Next week's question: "Is the rehabilitation program which is carried on by the Resettlement Administration an expensive form of relief?"

CARTHAGE LAWYER SPEAKER AT KIWANIS MEET WEDNESDAY

cisions as fast as the cases from the lower courts accumulate. For this reason important cases await a decision from the higher court for a year or more.

The fifth amendment gives the legislature the power to enact a law allowing $1,000 exemption of homes which are occupied by the owner as his or her residence. The amendment would require the owner to live in the house exempted. If this amendment is adopted it will mean a tremendous loss to the county and the various local units. It would mean higher tax rates to cover the loss in valuations. From the $300 exemption of livestock enacted by the last general assembly Moore county has suffered a loss of $250,000 in valuations which will have to be made up from other sources.

The speaker was introduced by Howard F. Burns.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS $27,000 TOWN OF SOUTHERN PINES, NORTH CAROLINA PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT BONDS

Sealed bids will be received until 11:00 o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time, August 25, 1936, by the undersigned at its office in the City of Raleigh, N. C., for $27,000 Public Improvement Bonds of the Town of Southern Pines, N. C., dated July 1, 1936, maturing annually, July 1, $1,000 1938 to 1948 and $2,000 1949 to 1956, all inclusive, without option of prior payment. There will be no auction. Denomination: $1,000; coupon bonds; principal and interest (J and J I) payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the Chemical Bank & Trust Company, New York City, New York; general obligations; unlimited tax; delivery on or about September 10, 1936 at place of purchaser's choice.

Bidders are requested to name the interest rate or rates, not exceeding six per cent per annum in multiples of one-fourth of one per cent. Each bid may name one rate for part of the bonds (having the earliest maturities), and another rate for the balance, but no bid may name more than two rates, and each bidder must specify in his bid the amount of bonds of each rate. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder offering to purchase the bonds at the lowest interest cost to the Town, such cost to be determined by deducting the total amount of the premium bid from the aggregate amount of interest upon all of the bonds until their respective maturities. No bid of less than par and accrued interest will be entertained.

Bids must be enclosed in a sealed envelope marked "Proposal for Bonds" and be accompanied by a certified check upon an incorporated bank or trust company, payable unconditionally to the order of the State Treasurer of North Carolina for $540. The right to reject all bids is reserved. The approving opinion of Storey Thorndike Palmer and Dodge, Boston, Massachusetts, will be furnished the purchaser.

Partridge and Hen Get Together on Incubation Proposition

Hughie Allen of Vass tells The Pilot the following story and vouches for its authenticity:

The other day Mr. Allen was ploughing in a field near his home when he heard a hen cackling in the edge of the woods. Not wanting to leave his mule unattended, he called to his wife to go out and look for the hen's nest.

Mrs. Allen went in the direction from which the hen was seen to come and found not one, but two nests, one a hen's and the other a partridge's. The two nests were on the ground within about five inches of each other. There were seven hen eggs and eleven partridge eggs, two of the hen eggs being in the bird's nest and two of the partridge eggs being in the chicken's nest.

Neighborhoodness, we call it.
