

The Week in Vass

The Vass Woman's Club met on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. G. W. Brooks with Mrs. W. E. Gladstone, Mrs. R. G. Rosser, Mrs. W. D. McCraney and Mrs. W. C. Leslie as hostesses.

The literature department of which Mrs. D. C. McGill is chairman had charge of the program, which was musical in nature. Mrs. Gladstone sang an old favorite, "Kentucky Babe", and Mrs. McGill gave a reading entitled "Home-made Music". An "orchestra" composed of Mrs. N. N. McLean, Mrs. C. L. Tyson, Mrs. Gladstone, Mrs. S. R. Smith and Miss Brooks then rendered a medley and the program ended with a musical reading, "The Songs My Mother Sang", by Majorie Leslie. Guests present were Mrs. Edward Buice of San Antonio, Texas, Mrs. Irene Byrd of Albermarle, Mrs. P. A. Wilson of Mooresville, Miss Ethelene Cain of White Oak, Miss Jessie Brooks, Mrs. Wilbur Beasley and Miss Marjorie Leslie.

Mrs. D. C. McGill was hostess to the Presbyterian Auxiliary and Business Woman's Circle at her home on Tuesday evening, at which time a program of unusual interest was given, the Presbyterian Orphan's Home at Barium Springs being the topic, and Miss Agnes Smith the leader.

Mrs. C. I. Calcote told of the origin of Barium and Miss Margaret Lambert gave the history of Little Joe's church. Mrs. P. A. Wilson told of "A Day at Barium" and Miss Smith gave interesting information about the baby cottage. Marian McMillan recited Mother Goose Missionary rhymes.

Mrs. McGill conducted an interesting Bible study and before the meeting ended delicious refreshments were served.

After spending several weeks in North Carolina visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Buice, Mrs. Ollie Sempleman and little Joyce Michon left Saturday for Texas.

Miss Lucille Mungo of Greensboro and Miami Beach, Florida, and Miss Sallie Currie of Candor and New Jer-
