FUNDS AVAILABLE FOR SANITARY PRIVY PROGRAM

The Government has provided funds for a Sanitary Privy program in Moore county. About eighty per cent of the homes in the county have Peachland, Incorporated. no proper facilities at present. This money as long as it lasts, will go to labor working on this project. The labor will be free to build and set sanitary privies as designed by the State Board of Health for every home owner or landlord who will furnish at an agreed place the materials as specified for constructing the pri-

The County Health Department wishes to remind every one that such is facility is necessary as long as people live in a house. Therefore it is good economy to build for permanence. The cost will be far less than the possible outlay for impair. ment of the health of the occupants of the home. The community will be safe also. Moore county has had two cases of typhoid fever this year for the lack of this facility for safety. No case occured where sanitation of the home was correct.

J. C. Bost, Project Supervisor, or B. T. Branch, County Sanitary Inspector will be glad to make arrangements for the necessary labor.

CHAMBER HERE FAVORS STATE ADVERTISING APPROPRIATION

A large appropriation for advertising North Carolina throughout the Country is favored by the Southern Pines Chamber of Commerce, which at a directors' meeting on Tuesday passed a resolution to join with other civic bodies throughout the state in petitioning favorable action by the next State Legislature. The purpose is to acquaint the traveling public with the beauties of the state, its plants and industries.
