BACHMAN AND LORENSON GIVE TALKS TO SCOUTS

The most coveted award in Scouting is a merit badge. Scouts must prepare long and well to pass the rigid requirements before the badge is awarded. In order that the path of study might be more interesting, Father Williams has planned many talks for all of the scouts of Southern Pines. On Wednesday of last week Harold Bachman, in charge of the local airport, explained the requirements for the Aviation merit badge. The boys thoroughly enjoyed his talk. After the regular weekly meeting on Friday last E. H. Lorensen explained the Radio merit badge. The boys were so interested that Mr. Lorensen promised to award all materials necessary to build a small radio to the boy that could first master the code to the extent of receiving and sending messages at the rate of ten words a minute. This evening T. Kennedy has promised to give an explanation of the merit badge in Stamp Collecting. All Scouts of Southern Pines are welcome to these talks.
