Miss Cameron Weds at Home of Parents

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruce Cameron is Bride of David Gillis

Miss Mary Elizabeth Cameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruce Cameron, and David Gillis, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gillis of Manley were united in marriage last Friday morning, at 9:00 o'clock in a ceremony of beauty and dignity at the home of the bride's parents, with the Rev. C. I. Calcote, pastor of the Manley Presbyterian Church, officiating in the presence of members of the families of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends.

Pine, potted plants and colorful fall flowers were used to form a background for the ceremony, and burning at each side were white tapers on tall white standards.

Mrs. C. I. Calcote played the nuptial music, "At Dawning," "Melody of Love," bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn's wedding march were used.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and the impressive ring ceremony was used. She was dressed in navy blue crepe and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Soon after the ceremony the couple left for a motor trip of unannounced destination.

Mrs. Gillis was graduated from the Southern Pines High School with the class of 1936. During her four years in high school she was active in athletics and was a member of the Glee Club, the Lyric Club and the Trio.

Mr. Gillis holds a position with the Carolina Power and Light Company in Southern Pines. They will make their home in Manley.
