Theatre

The best description of "The Gay Desperado," the unusually fine attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 2-3-4, with a Tuesday matinee, is from the pen of Hollywood's best known critics, after he had seen a preview of the picture in Hollywood: "Quite some time before its completion, insiders in Hollywood were whispering that in 'The Gay Desperado' Pickford-Lasky had a potential sensation. What came up on the screen when the picture was previewed, to be enthusiastically received by the audience, vividly indicated that the inside knowledge sharpers fell short in their advance estimations.

It is comedy-melodrama with romantic love interest embellished with beautiful music. The theme and the way it is worked out are surprising. So is the action, acting and dialogue, the class of production support, photography and novel directorial technique. But most surprising of all is the music. In having Leo Carrillo and his gang of gay desperados emulate the American gangsters, a rollicking laugh-loaded comedy is presented that is grand entertainment every foot of the way.

According to the preview critics, "Easy To Take", the attraction for Thursday and Friday, Nov. 5-6, with a Thursday matinee, should be easy to take by any audience that enjoys an evening of fun. It is the story of a radio personality who specializes in being the big brother, actually the Uncle Roddy of millions of kid listeners-in, who is made trustee of an enormous fund which carries the provision that he must become the guardian of her spoiled little nephew. Uncle Roddy's hatred of brats knows no limit, and it becomes more adamant when fund turns out to be mythical. Yet because his manager has boasted to the skies about his kindnesses, the program headliner has to go through with the stunt even though it is necessary to support the boy, his grown-up sister, himself and his manager on $40.00 a week. John Howard is the unwilling guardian, Eugene Pallette is his avid, publicity seeking manager and Marsha Hunt is the girl. An added attraction is the new March Of Time.

North, South, East and West, the happy, scrappy Jones Family travel the trail to adventure and romance in "Back To Nature," coming to the Southern Pines Theatre Saturday, November 7th, matinee and night, and heralded as the best in the hilarious series of the Jones Family pictures. Featuring Jed Prouty, Shirley Deane, Dixie Dunbar, Tony Martin, Spring Byington, Kenneth Howell, George Ernst and Florence Roberts, "Back To Nature" is a riotous story of the Joneses on a vacation—a vacation more thrilling, more exciting and more riotous than your own.

TO REPORT WEDNESDAY ON CONVENTION OF MINISTERS

The North Carolina Convention of ministers, representing all the leaders of Protestantism in the state, which met for three days this week at Winston-Salem, will be reported next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at a meeting at the Church of Wide Fellowship. Dr. Edward F. Green and Dr. C. Rexford Raymond will speak. Everyone is invited. The theme of the convocation was "The Abiding Gospel in a Changing World." Eminent speakers from all parts of the state and from many cities and universities throughout the nation gave addresses of great significance.

Miss Isabel Pelton and her roommate, Miss Katherine Tompson, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Pelton for the week-end.

Edgar Bowman Absent-Mindedly Purloins Blue Barouche in Aberdeen

Edgar Bowman of Aberdeen, associated with the Mid-South Motors, Chevrolet dealers, walked downtown to the Bryan Drug store in Aberdeen the other night, talked politics over a Coca-Cola with some of the crowd, wandered out, stepped in a car and drove home. He put the car in his garage, locked it up, retired.

Among those in the drug store was Clifton Blue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Blue. When he had heard all the politics he could stand he stepped out, headed for his car. It wasn't there. He searched, inquired, finally reported its loss to Chief Dees.

"I just saw a car that looked like yours going up the hill toward Southern Pines," a passer-by informed him. "Edgar Bowman was driving it."

They got in touch with Edgar. He absent-mindedly and used to hopping into this second-hand car and that in his line of duty, had unconsciously purloined the Blue barouche.

OPENS BEAUTY SHOP

Charlotte Cutting Coburn has returned to Pinehurst and opened her beauty shop in the theatre building. Associated with her this season will be Miss Ruby Samuels of Washington, D. C., an expert in permanent waving and hair styling. Mrs. Coburn has had her entire shop renovated and it is now open for the convenience of old customers as well as new.

OPENS NEW BEAUTY SHOP

Miss Pauline Holmes has leased the store on West Broad street occupied last year by the Mid-South Grill and is opening The Vogue Beauty Shoppe next Monday morning.

ing an automobile, committed to prison in July, 1936. Newsom is one of the men who held-up Mr. Monroe, an Eagle Springs mail carrier.

As Mrs. Felton drove the car into her yard, the lights went out, and it is thought probable that the men drove without lights until in their haste they wrecked the car. Damage to the automobile is estimated at around $100.

STOLE BICYCLE

For the larceny of a bicycle from Willard Dunlap, O. B. Benson, colored of Pinehurst, was sent to the county home to serve three months.

The Southern Pines Curb Market is open on Tuesdays and Saturdays with produce of all kinds direct from the farms of Moore county. Visit the market on East Broad street to-morrow.
