

SOUTHERN PINES SCHOOL DEFEATS VASS AND CAMERON

Southern Pines School defeated Vass in baseball last Wednesday, 10 to 1. Vass scored its run in the first inning. Newton gave up five hits and struck out nine men. Southern Pines scored one in the fifth and nine in the sixth. Thursday Southern Pines won over Cameron 14-4 to revenge the beating suffered the week before. Parker allowed five hits, while Southern Pines touched six Cameron pitchers for 14 hits. Buchan with four for four and Cameron with two for two led the locals at bat. Lankford with two for three was best for Cameron.

VASS BOY BREAKS LEG IN SCHOOL FOOTBALL GAME

While playing football at the Vass-Lakeview School on Thursday of last week, Irvin Kirk suffered a broken leg. Both bones are broken, one in two places.

It pays to advertise in The Pilot.

The Week in Carthage

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. McKeithen, Jr., of Lumberton spent the week-end with Mrs. N. A. McKeithen. Mrs. J. V. D. Baker has returned to her home in New Wilmington, Pa., after spending several months with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. Symington. Mrs. W. D. Sabiston and son, Billy are visiting relatives in Eastern Carolina.

Miss Gladys Watson of Albemarle and Mrs. Alice Watson of Oxford spent Sunday in Carthage.

Mrs. Howard Gardner of Greensboro spent the week-end in Carthage.

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Carter and Miss Frances McKeithen spent Saturday in Greensboro.

F. W. Wood of Marion spent a few days last week with his daughter, Mrs. O. B. Welch.

Miss Judith Wainer spent Tuesday in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Clegg, Mrs. R. W. Pleasants and Frances Ann Clegg spent Friday in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carter spent Saturday in Raleigh.

Rudolph Womack of High Point spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Womack.

Mrs. H. B. Porter of Wilmington has returned home after visiting her mother, Mrs. Ed Waddill.

Mrs. W. H. Branson celebrated her 71st birthday during the past week.

Miss Sara Yow, Mrs. H. L. Miller, Mrs. Hugh Jackson and Miss Maxine Jackson left Sunday for Henderson, where Miss Yow and Miss Jackson will enter the finals of the State Amateur and Beauty contest.

Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Underwood motored to Durham Wednesday to hear the eminent Bible teacher, Arns C. Gaebelein of New York, lecture.

Mrs. Jesse Woltz of Raleigh spent the week-end in Carthage.

Mrs. Kitty Ann Bruton of Biscoe is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. P. H. McDonald.

Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Underwood and children spent Sunday in Clinton.

Misses Nellie and Nannie Hoyle and S. R. Hoyle were dinner guests last Tuesday night of Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Hoyle of Sanford.

James Poe of Fayetteville spent last Tuesday with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ward and Mrs. W. H. Branson.

Miss Virginia Brown spent the week-end at her home in Charlotte.

Attending the N. C. Synodical at Laurinburg last Wednesday were the following members of the Carthage Presbyterian church: Mr. and Mrs. Lannie Blue, Mrs. S. H. Miller, Mrs.

Chas. Cox, Mrs. P. H. McDonald and Mrs. W. S. Golden

Mrs. C. E. Dowless of Albemarle and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Turner of Burlington were the week-end guests of Mrs. Ida Tyson.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Martin and William Weighs of New York City spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hardy.

Mrs. William Clark has returned from Wilson where she spent the past week.

Mrs. T. C. Hoyle, Jr., of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Hoyle of Sanford and sons Jimmie and Dick were guests of Misses Nannie and Nellie Hoyle at a birthday dinner given Dick Hoyle on the occasion of his tenth birthday.

Miss Eula Mae Morgan, formerly of Carthage and Raleigh, has accepted a position in Aberdeen.

Miss Catherine Shaulk spent the week-end in Mt. Gilead.

Miss Mettie Brown has returned to her home in Fayetteville after a visit with Mrs. L. C. Wallace.

Miss Julia Thompson spent last week-end in Norwood.

Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Underwood entertained their contract club on Friday evening at dinner. High score prize for the ladies was presented to Mrs. W. D. Sabiston and for the men to Dwight Scotten.

Mrs. R. L. Felton entertained the members of her bridge club on Thursday evening. Contract was played at two tables. Mrs. Earl McDonald received high score prize and Mrs. T. L. Frye second high. An attractive gift was presented to Miss Catherine Shields, special guest to the club.

The Carthage Book Reviewers held their first fall meeting with Mrs. L. C. Wallace on Thursday evening. Mrs. J. L. McGraw read an interesting paper on the "Little Theatre in North Carolina." Miss Johnnie Redding read Eugene O'Neill's play, "The Emperor Jones."

The Carthage Music Club met for the first time this fall with Mrs. C. G. Spencer on Wednesday afternoon. Officers for the coming year were elected. Mrs. M. J. McPhail, president; Mrs. H. F. Seawell, Sr., vice-president; Mrs. Charles Cox, secretary and Mrs. J. G. Downing, treasurer. Mrs. W. G. Brown made a report from the district meeting in Fayetteville.

LOUISE BLUE PRESIDENT OF SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Sophomore Class of Southern Pines High School has chosen the following students for class officers: President, Louise Blue; vice-president, Rebecca Neal; secretary, Louise Crain; treasurer, Jane Mann; chairman Home-room Program Committee, Nancy Wrenn.

Marguerete Osborne has contributed a table to the class, which James Pate and Richard Anderson plan to redecorate. Members of the class will contribute magazines to the school to form a Reading Circle. The Sophomores also have the distinction of being the first class to have 100 percent membership in the Athletic Association.

KEEN INTEREST IN NEW COUNTY WOMEN'S CHORUS

The first meeting of the women's chorus held in Carthage on Saturday, a chorus sponsored by the Home Demonstration Club Council, was attended by women from six different sections of the county and was marked by keen interest.

The second Saturday afternoon in each month has been set as the time for rehearsals, beginning at 2:30 o'clock, and it has been decided to discontinue the payment of a fee, Miss McDonald states.

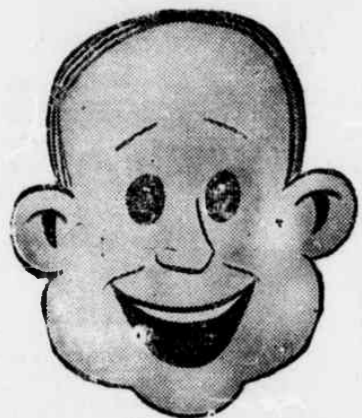

"A Camel—and everything's O.K.!"

COVETED OUTBOARD TITLE goes to Clayton Bishop, 1936 winner of the Albany-New York Marathon! He says: "Camels make food taste better and digest better." As digestion is stimulated, alkalinity increased, you will enjoy a grand feeling of comfort. Smoke Camels—and see.

CAMELS COSTLIER TOBACCOS

HAVE YOU REGISTERED in the
ELEC THRIFT CAMPAIGN?

ELEC THRIFT
Candidate For
COMMISSIONER of HAPPINESS

You are cordially invited to register and vote in this interesting campaign and thus have a FREE chance to participate in the awarding of substantial prizes on November 6.

VISIT YOUR ELECTRICAL DEALER'S STORE AND REGISTER TODAY!

Get your registration card and ballot without cost or obligation. Your Electrical Dealer will be glad to welcome you and explain full details of how you may win a share of the

18 Cash Prizes
$25.00 FIRST PRIZE

NOTHING TO BUY NOTHING TO SELL
NOTHING TO SUBMIT IN COMPETITION

Precinct Headquarters

Carolina Power and Light Company
East Broad Street

L. V. O'Callaghan

C. J. Simons

CAMERON

Robert McFadyen of Enfield spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Georgia McFadyen.

Mrs. G. A. Culberson of Sanford spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Wooten.

Mrs. J. M. Guthrie attended a meeting of the N. C. Synod at Laurinburg Wednesday.

J. E. Coore of Raleigh visited his sister, Mrs. J. W. Cameron, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Graham and children of Route 1 were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rogers.

Arch McDugald of Hamlet spent Friday with his mother, Mrs. Julia McDugald.

Mrs. J. J. Irvin visited relatives in High Point during the week-end.

Miss Marjorie Thomas spent last week in Greensboro with Mrs. Dick Henderson.

The Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill were guests Sunday of Mrs. D. H. Cameron in Southern Pines. Mr. McNeill delivered a splendid sermon at the Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church Sunday morning.

The newly organized school glee club, under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Abernathy and M. P. Snipes, presented an excellent program in Chapel Thursday. A pleasing feature of the program was a number by a quartet composed of Estelle Faulk, Frances Lane, Nelson Atkins and Wesley Stoltz.

This evening, Friday, at 8:00 o'clock, the High School and elementary grades will present a stunt show together with a Halloween Carnival, in the auditorium. There will be various side shows, as well as a cake walk to provide fun for everybody. Admission is 5c for children, 10c for adults.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses have been issued from the office of the Register of Deeds of Moore county to the following: Leonard Lassiter and Clarice Jessamine Matthews, both of Glendon; Roy Whitaker and Niomia Bibey, both of Vass; James P. Culbertson and Helen Yow, both of Carthage route.

Free Cash Prizes
—TO—
Farmers Who Sell Their Tobacco
—ON—
The Aberdeen Tobacco Market

During this week, the Aberdeen Tobacco Board of Trade will offer every day immediately after sales are concluded, a $5.00 CASH PRIZE to the farmer who sells the highest priced pile of tobacco that day. (The pile must contain at least 100 pounds of tobacco).

In addition to this daily cash prize an award of $5.00 will be paid to the farmer selling the greatest number of pounds of tobacco on the Aberdeen Market during the week. In event of ties those involved will draw lots for the prize. Records of the two warehouses will be used to determine winners.

Sell your Tobacco on the Aberdeen Market. You'll receive as good prices as you can get on any market in this or any other state.

Two Large Well Lighted Warehouses

Saunders Warehouse, Covington's Warehouse,
B. B. Saunders, Prop. C. W. Covington, Prop.

Sell your tobacco here every day—Win one of these Cash Prizes—But Listen—Even if you don't win a prize you'll be satisfied with the prices your tobacco brings—Come Early.

Appreciation

For a well governed State and well governed County will be shown at the polls on Tuesday by the Electorate of Moore County.

No matter what their politics, Citizens of the Sandhills traditionally vote for the Candidates of the Democratic Party—BECAUSE

North Carolina's Progress—and many years it has been among the most progressive states—has been made under Democratic State Administrations;

Moore County's high rank among the 100 counties of the state is attributed to efficient government—competent public officials from ranks of Democracy.

VOTE THE STATE DEMOCRATIC TICKET FROM CLYDE HOEY FOR GOVERNOR DOWN . . . VOTE THE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC TICKET FROM TOP TO BOTTOM . . . and keep State and County Marching On.

Moore County Democratic Executive Committee

M. G. BOYETTE, CHAIRMAN