Theatre

AT Pinehurst
"Born to Dance," which comes to the Pinehurst Theatre Monday, November 30th, matinee at 3:00 and the night at 8:20 is hailed as the season's most lavish pot-pourri of music and dancing. The vehicle presents the dynamic Eleanor Powell as its star and just about runs the gamut of rhythm. In all there are more than 250 dancers and more than 200 instrumentalists and singers in this new production with a nautical background with music and lyrics by Cole Porter, for several seasons Broadway number one tuner and lyricist. Miss Powell, whose versatility and appealing personality won her stardom in asingle picture, "Broadway Melody of 1936", introduces 14 varieties of dance steps. In one number she does a medley of six different types of dancing in as many minutes. She even leads a 75-piece band with taps and makes her twinkling toes compete with the drummer's most expert rolls and beats.

In "April Romance" the Pinehurst Theatre is presenting an attraction of something worthwhile, different and of special interest to all lovers of the "better" things in music. In the language of a pre-view critic, "Here is gloriously enchanting screen entertainment for lovers of romance, exquisite melody and exquisite spectacle. The immortal love story of Franz Schubert, the triumph and drama that inspired his melodies; all are now brought to the screen—with the voice of the world-renowned tenor Richard Tauber to thrill you with its unmatched beauty." Hear the glorious composition of Franz Schubert, including "Hark! Hark! The Lark!," "Thine Is My Heart," "Red Roses," and "Faith in Spring." "April Romance is the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, December 2nd, at 3:00 and 8:20 P. M. An added attraction is the new "March of Time."

There is a surprise in store for all movie fans who don't include Shakespeare in their list of favorite movie authors. For the attraction at Pinehurst Friday, December 4th, matinee at 3:00, night at 8:20 brings Elizabeth Bergner to the screen in "As You Like It," the most joyous of all Shakespeare's plays. Advance reports herald it as one of the greatest entertainments ever filmed. There is hilarious laughter at the escapades of Miss Bergner as Roseland, tender romance in the love of Roseland and Orlando, excitement and thrills in the duels, jousts and combats with which the pictures abounds, splendor in the lavish court scenes, and wild mirth in the drollery of those clowning companions. Touchstone and Jacques. With thrill following thrill, always blended with the roitious hilarity, the film comes to the brilliant climax, that has made "As You Like It" one of the most beloved of all Shakespeare's plays.

At Southern Pines
Samuel Goldwyn's magnificent film version of Edna Ferber's colorful novel of the lumber camp, "Come and Get It", is the attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 30, December 1 and 2 with a matinee Tuesday at 3:00 and night shows at 8:15. Impressive in its picturization of that quality of physical and elemental conflict so well appreciated by men folks, appealing in its presentation of a story of dramatic and romantic conflict, the production is of the kind generally alluring to women. An inspired cast headed by Edward Arnold in the role of Barney Glasgow, the Chore boy who became a lumber baron, brings Miss Ferber's vivid characters to life with uncanny accuracy and the film catches all the color, the thrills, the danger and the fun of the story. Arnold gives what is unquestionably his best performance as Barney. Joel McCrea is perfect as the son Richard; Frances Farmer gives a fine understanding characterization in the difficult dual role of Lotta and Lotta's beautiful daughter.

Joan Crawford and Clark Gable have the time of their lives in their new co-starring picture, "Love on the Run", playing a return engagement at Southern Pines Thursday and Friday.

Rexford Raymond at the Church of Wide Fellowship. A special musical and liturgical service has been prepared. Union evening service at 8:00 p. m., with sermon by the Rev. J. Fred Stimson. Open house with volley ball and other games at the Assembly Hall of the parish house this Friday at 8:00 p. m. Union Choir rehearsal in preparation for the Sunday night service, Friday at 7:30 p. m., November 27.

day, December 3rd and 4th, with a matinee Thursday at 3:00, night shows at 8:15. And its a safe bet to say that the film public viewing this picture will have the time of its life as well. Not in a long time has there been a picture which has the freshness, gaiety and spontaneity of "Love on the Run". Acted to perfection by its ace team of stars with the support of Franchot Tone, Reginald Owen, Mona Barrie and others, the new offering has that combination of wit, charm and pulsating action which marked such earlier hits as "The Thin Man" and "It Happened One Night." As an added attraction, the "March of Time."
Gene Raymond and Ann Southern reach new heights in the sparkling comedy-romance, "Smartest Girl in Town", the attraction at Southern Pines Saturday, December 5th matinee at 3:00, night at 8:15. Delightful humor is combined with a fast moving plot which gives the fullest play to the versatile talents of one of the screens most popular romantic teams. The Comedy, which is definitely keyed to the ultra-modern entertainment tastes, is built around the marital aims of a lovely photographers model, Miss Southern, who decides that the pathway to conjugal bliss must be paved with gold.
