Principal of Farm Life School Weds Miss Cox

Ceremony Performed at Home of Bride's Mother in Gastonia on November 25

A wedding characterized by unusual charm and beauty was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Ada Cox in Gastonia on November 25th when her talented daughter became the bride of Worth L. Kiser, principal of the Farm Life School of Carthage Route 3. Only a small circle of close relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. The Rev. W. J. Roach, pastor of the bride, officiated and Mrs. C. C. Carpenter of Gastonia presided at the piano.

The vows were spoken before an altar of evergreens, white chrysanthemums and seven branched candelabra set with lighted cathedral tapers. The bridal pair approached unattended and the Bridal chorus from Lohengrin was followed by Indian Love Call which was the ceremony music. The bride was charming in an ensemble of Romanee blue worn with black accessories and a shoulder spray of gardenias.

Mrs. Kiser is a daughter of Mrs. Ada Cox and received her education in Gastonia High School and Asheville Normal College. She is a charming and popular girl and is admired by a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Kiser is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kiser of Bessemer City. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and has for the past several years been principal of the Farm-Life School. Mr. and Mrs. Kiser left immediately after the ceremony for a bridal trip after which they will be at home in the Farm Life School community.

LOVERINGS WIN MIXED DOUBLES TENNIS EVENT

Richard Lovering of Jackson Springs made it two-straight in Pinehurst tennis of the season Sunday afternoon when, with Mrs. Lovering as partner, he won the round robin mixed doubles tournament with the loss of only five games of 30 played. He and his partner won the men's doubles the previous Sunday. Eight teams competed in the mixed doubles event which attracted a large crowd of spectators to the Pinehurst Country Club.

In second place were Mr. and Mrs. Read Hager of New York, who are stopping at The Carolina. They won 21 games, lost nine. Another Lovering, Miss Phyllis, with her partner, Leland McKeithen, were in third place with 18 wins to 12 losses. Each team was supposed to play each other five games, but rain halted the event before completion of the full schedule.

Others finished the event in the following order:

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson C. Hyde, won 16, lost 12; Mrs. Donald Sherrerd and E. S. Blodgett, won 10, lost 20; Miss Dorothy Ehrhardt and Thomas Cole, won nine, lost 19; Miss Millie Montesanti, won seven, lost 16; Mr. Paul Dana, won seven, lost 18.
