

Cameron and Community

After an illness of several months, Daniel Kenneth McDonald, aged 55, died at his home in Cameron on Wednesday, December 16th. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald of Moore County. He was a faithful janitor for ten years of the Cameron School, but was engaged in farming this year. He was a kind-hearted friend and neighbor. Surviving are his widow, who before marriage was Miss Annie Boggs; four sons, J. D. John W., E. B. and Dan McDonald; three daughters, Misses Carrie Belle, Mary K. and Anne McDonald, all of Cameron; two brothers, J. B. McDonald of Cameron and John N. McDonald of Monroe; four sisters, Mrs. Mamie Hunter and Mrs. Annie Thrift of Durham; Miss Sallie McDonald and Mrs. J. M. Gilchrist of Raleigh.

Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, the Rev. M. D. McNeill from the Presbyterian Church of which he was a member on Thursday afternoon.

Pallbearers were Messrs. B. T. Thomasson, Malloy Harbor, George Cole, Lefe Thomas, D. W. McNeill and Martin McFadyen. Interment was in the town cemetery. Among those here for the funeral were Mrs. Mamie Hunter, Mrs. Annie Thrift, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hunter of Durham, Mrs. James Gilchrist, Misses Sallie McDonald and Florine Gilchrist of Raleigh, John and Owen McDonald of Monroe.

The following young people are home for the holidays: Miss Marie Parker from Elon College, Miss Margaret McDermott from Flora McDonald, Jeanette Wooten from Fayetteville Business College, Misses Martha Britton and Margaret McLean from N. C. C. W., Elizabeth Thomas from Campbell College, Wingate Jones and Francis Thomasson from Wake Forest.

Superintendent Grier of the Thomasville Orphanage filled the pulpit at the Baptist Church last Sunday morning. He stated there were 700 children at this institution, and that for a period of five years not a single death had occurred. Another remarkable statement was that every child in the orphanage contributed to the Thanksgiving collection, giving money they themselves had earned.

The condition of Mrs. J. A. Phillips, who has been critically ill for several weeks at the Lee County Hospital is some what improved.

Mrs. D. B. Teague of Sanford was the week-end guest of the Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill.

Mrs. Eugene McIver of the Cool Springs Community and her daughter, Miss Mary Lacy McIver of the Erwin School faculty are spending the holiday season with the family of J. A. Phillips.

Miss Effie Gilchrist, teacher at Oriental School, Misses Annie McFadyen of Bliscoe School, Beulah Thomas of Henderson School, Lillian Cole of Concord faculty, Flora Phillips of Deep River School, Mamie Arnold of Needham's Grove and Catherine McDonald of Hemp School are at home for the holidays.

Mesdames Janie Muse, Loula Muse, Misses Minnie and Jackie Muse and W. A. Muse were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gibson of Rockingham. Mrs. Janie Muse remained for a week's visit with her daughter, Sandy Thomas of Route 2, aged 70, suffered a stroke of paralysis last Sunday evening, and on Monday his condition was reported as unfavorable.

Miss Elizabeth Duchon, a trained nurse of Washington City, D. C., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Talley and Miss Margaret McDougald last Friday night. Miss Duchon was enroute to Florida to spend Christmas with the Alex McDougald family.

Miss Margaret McLeod of Broadway, member of the Henderson School faculty, was the week-end guest of Miss Beulah Thomas.

Miss Elizabeth Thomas, a student at Campbell College, had the misfortune to lose a goodly portion of her winter wardrobe and other personal belongings in the recent fire which consumed the Fred Day dormitory.

On Monday evening at the Presbyterian church, a group from the Manley and Vass Presbyterian churches presented a pageant, "The Bethlehem Inn," which was enjoyed by a large congregation. Weeks of training under the direction of the Rev. and Mrs. C. I. Calcote enabled the large cast to appear at their best, and special lighting added to the beauty and effectiveness of the performance. A Christmas offering for ministerial relief was received at the close of the service.

Mrs. J. M. Norton of near Raeford, the former Miss Hattie Smith of Lobbella, entertained at a surprise birthday dinner on last Sunday for her husband. Those from this community who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Arch McGill and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith and children of Route 2, Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean and sons, Mrs. W. J. Cameron and Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Smith.

Mrs. Alton Chappell and little daughter of Sanford came Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Byrd. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Massengill and Hubert Massengill of Four Oaks were visitors here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson and baby have returned to the Clay Road section to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cox have purchased the J. R. Thomas place in town and have moved in from their farm on the Vass-Carthage road.

Miss Iola Dickens of Sanford is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Clyde Cox.

B. Parker of Rockingham came Saturday to visit his brothers, A. B. Parker and J. J. Parker.

Miss Exie Beasley of Candor visited relatives here during the week-end and went to Cary on Monday to have a tonsil operation.

Mrs. T. M. Flack and little son, Hubert, are spending the holidays with relatives at Forrester City.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Willis of Onancock, Va., will spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Willis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Graham of Ruffin, S. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Graham for the holidays.

Little Duncan McGill, Jr., has been sick for several days with pneumonia.

The Week in Vass

The Vass Woman's Club held a delightful meeting on Tuesday evening with Miss Mary Beasley, Mrs. C. L. Tyson, Mrs. Bertie L. Mathews and Mrs. C. J. Temple as hostesses. Miss Katrina Beasley was a guest of the club. The literature department, of which Mrs. D. C. McGill is chairman, had charge of the program. Mrs. C. P. McMillan read O. Henry's "The Gift of the Magi," and Mrs. S. R. Smith gave a group of Riley's Christmas poems. The entire group sang several Christmas carols. Plans for spreading Christmas cheer were made, and the chair announced the appointment of Mrs. P. A. Wilson as legislative chairman of the club.

Among the college young people who are here for the Christmas holidays are Franklin Matthews and Marian Cameron of Louisburg, Herman Parker of the University at Chapel Hill, Bernice Graham of State College and Robert Rosser of Davidson. From the teaching ranks have come Miss Jessie Brooks of Wilson, Miss Eloise Brooks of Buie's Creek and Miss Elizabeth Keith of Wallace.

Miss Glennie Keith of Raleigh is at home for a holiday visit.

An impressive Christmas service was held in the Methodist church on Sunday evening with a large number of the young people taking part. The choir, composed of six young ladies dressed in red capes and caps, used "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" as a processional. Mrs. C. P. McMillan, with Miss Marian Cameron playing chimes accompaniment, gave the story, "Why The Chimes Rang." The second part of the program was a beautiful pageant given by candle light and ending with a tableau of the manger scene with Joseph, Mary, the kings and angels gathered near. An offering for the orphanage in Raleigh was taken.

On Monday evening at the Presbyterian church, a group from the Manley and Vass Presbyterian churches presented a pageant, "The Bethlehem Inn," which was enjoyed by a large congregation. Weeks of training under the direction of the Rev. and Mrs. C. I. Calcote enabled the large cast to appear at their best, and special lighting added to the beauty and effectiveness of the performance.
