It is always a pleasure to announce the coming of a George Arliss production, and it is especially true of his latest picture, "Man of Affairs," which is the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre Monday, December 28th, matinee and night. Essentially this is a comedy of character, depending on exceptional acting for its full expression. Arliss appears in a dual role and the intrinsically amusing story of a cabinet minister's bohemian brother posing as a pompous twin, and actually imposing on the gathering of ministers. Arliss never has acted with greater finesse, a more acute sense of character, or more obvious enjoyment.

"One in a Million" is the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, December 30th, matinee and night, featuring that remarkable champion ice-skater, Sonja Henie, who has also demonstrated in personality, looks and acting talent that there isn't any question that she has what it takes to become a popular screen figure. Convinced that they have an important new star in Miss Henie, 20th Century-Fox left no stone unturned to insure that her initial picture should have the benefit of unusual production, exceptional story content, high class musical accompaniment and unusual spectacle. The setting constructed for Miss Henie's skating exhibitions, both in solo and with chorus, are lavish and beautiful. An unusual supporting cast surrounds Miss Henie including Adolph Menjou, Jean Hersholt, Ned Sparks, Dan Ameche, the Ritz Brothers, Arlene Judge, Dixie Dunbar, Leah Ray, Shirley Deane of Harmonica Maestros.

"After the Thin Man," starring William Powell and Myrna Loy will be the attraction at Pinehurst Friday, January 1st, matinee and night. This sensational sequel to "The Thin Man," has produced in response to public demand for another mystery by Dashiell Hammett. Powell and Miss Loy excel their stellar performance in the original and the story is even more intriguing. A first rate supporting cast includes James Stewart, Elissa Landi, Joseph Calleia, Jessie Ralph and Asta, the smart little wire-haired terrier that played such a clever role in "The Thin Man."

At Southern Pines Spanky McFarland ascends among the cinema stars in "General Spanky," the new Hal Roach feature-length comedy at the Southern Pines Theatre Saturday, December 26th, matinee and night. It has been a long but signally successful climb for the chubby little favorite. Seven of his eight years have been spent before the camera, the last five years with "Our Gang," but in "General Spanky" he turns in his most stellar performance, and makes the feature one of the most entertaining and interesting comedies of the season that has an appeal to grown-ups as well as children. An added attraction is the return engagement of the delightful technicolor Harmon-Ising cartoon, "The Little Cheeser."

For his second independent effort, David O. Selznick, brilliant young producer who last season inaugurated Selznick International Pictures with the delightful "Little Lord Fauntleroy" has gone into the technicolor field. The result is a truly breath-taking production of the great Robert Hichens love story, "The Garden of Allah," the attraction at Southern Pines Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Dec. 28, 29, 30 with a matinee Tuesday. "The Garden of Allah" co-stars Marlene Dietrich and Charles Boyer and magically catches the mystic romantic atmosphere of the desert that pervades the novel. The use of technicolor miraculously transforms both stars into new and more exciting personalities, and the fair beauty of Dietrich provides a perfect foil for the dark-eyed handsomeness of Boyer.

Edward Everett Horton, for many years one of the nation's most popular comedians, and "The Pixilated Sisters," Screenland's newest big comedy team, are together in a gay comedy which will hit home with millions. "Let's Make a Million," the attraction at Southern Pines Thursday and Friday, December 31st and January 1st, matinee on Thursday. Horton, who has been in films for 16 years hardly needs an introduction to theatre-goers. He appears in "Let's Make a Million" as the fluttery nervous person familiar to all, this time as a veteran who gets his bonus and plans to do big things with it. The "pixilated" pair, however, have appeared together only once before, and that was as the two maiden ladies in "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town." But they captured America in that one performance and repeat their success in the forthcoming comedy.
