KEITH'S TAVERN OPENS THIS WEEK IN ABERDEEN

Kenneth Keith announces this week the opening of Keith's Tavern, the new Shell service station located at the intersection of the Laurinburg and Raeford highways in Aberdeen. This is the first of two new Shell places to open in Aberdeen this winter. The other is expected to open within two or three weeks at the location formerly occupied by the Carolina Discount Corporation, near the Coca-Cola plant. Mr. Keith's new place will feature all Shell products. The Tavern is equipped with the modern style barbecue pits, which are placed inside the building. This is one of the few of this type in this section. An up-to-date kitchen lunch counter, booths and a dance floor will all add to the attractions. Toasted sandwiches, beer, cold drinks and ice cream will be served at all hours. Keith's Tavern is the third of Mr. Keith's business places in Aberdeen; he also operates Ken's Lunch on South street and the Bluebird Service Station opposite the Tavern.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Mrs. H. H. Brooks wishes to express their appreciation to all those who helped in many thoughtful and sympathetic ways during her illness and at the time of her death.
