

The Week in Vass

The Rev. C. I. Calcote will preach in the local Presbyterian church at 7:00 o'clock Sunday evening, January 24, and the public is cordially invited to worship there.

Mrs. W. D. McCraney was hostess to the Presbyterian Auxiliary at its January meeting. Mrs. Calcote had charge of the program and made an interesting talk on Africa, which was followed by enlightening facts concerning the life of the African women, given by Mrs. B. H. Wood. Mrs. N. N. McEwan gave the introduction to the mission study book, "Congo Crosses," and Mrs. D. C. McGill conducted the Bible study.

The group decided to invite the other women of the community to join with them in the observance of World Day of Prayer on February 12. Mrs. A. P. Kimball, who recently moved to the A. K. Thompson place, was a guest at the meeting. Mrs. McCraney was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Hemphill, in serving delicious refreshments.

Friends here were saddened last week to learn of the death of Mrs. Ida Stewart, which occurred at her home in Laurinburg. Mrs. Stewart was the mother of Mrs. E. J. Tillman, a former Vass resident, and had visited here frequently, winning for herself many friends. J. M. Tyson, C. L. Tyson, Paul Gschwind, Charles Gschwind and Paul Laubscher attended the funeral in Laurinburg Wednesday.

Mrs. Clyde McMillan went to Lucama Sunday to join a party of friends on a trip to Washington, D. C., to attend the inauguration.

In celebration of her eleventh birthday, Retha Mae Cox entertained several of her friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cox, on Thursday afternoon.

Outdoor games were directed by Miss Gladys Cox, and the guests were later invited into the dining room, where a cake with red candles centered the table, for refreshments. Retha Mae received a number of attractive gifts.

Guests were Margaret Bettina, Marie Tyson, Janet Rosser, Faye Corbett, Herminia Causey, Hugh McLean, A. Mac Cameron, Max and Baxter Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stewart have recently moved into the John Norman Cameron house here.

B. H. Wood has been confined to his home for several days with an attack of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Parham visited relatives in Swann Station during the week-end.

Mrs. W. D. McCraney spent a part of last week in Sanford with her sister, Mrs. W. D. Hunter, who was ill.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Taylor, Miss Marjorie Leslie and Julian Leslie were Asheboro visitors Monday.

Misses Leone Currie and Sallie Mae Bivins spent last week-end with Miss Currie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blue, in Southern Pines.

Mrs. Howard Ellis and twin sons, Wayne and Duain, of Ramseur visited D. A. Cameron and family recently.

Mrs. W. H. Keith and Mrs. G. W. Griffin were Raleigh visitors a day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Chappell and baby and Luther Byrd of Sanford visited relatives in the Vass community Sunday.

D. J. McDuffie and Miss Dalmatta McDuffie of Sanford and Miss Effie McDuffie of Pittsboro were week-end guests of Miss Mattie McDuffie at Hotel Charmella.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boggs and family and Vance Cox of Broadway spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cox. Miss Gladys Cox returned home with them for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley B. Reece and little daughter, Sara Ann, of Durham visited Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Oldham Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cameron and A. Mac Cameron spent last week-end in the home of Mrs. Cameron's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. McCay, at Buie's Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Willard and baby of High Point came last week to the home of Mrs. Willard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Williams, near Vass.

Robert Rosser of Davidson College, spent the week-end at home. Dr. R. G. Rosser, John and Janet Rosser accompanied him on the return trip to Davidson Sunday.

Ted Hinsley cut a bad gash in his leg Saturday while splitting wood. Eight stitches were necessary to close the wound.

Miss Catharine McMillan, student nurse at Mary Elizabeth Hospital in Raleigh, visited her father and sister, N. A. McMillan and Miss Myrtle McMillan, during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wallace of Carthage visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tyson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Griffin and children of Hamlet visited Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Griffin during the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Griffin and baby, who had been with the Griffins for some time, returned to Sanford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cameron of Manley spent Wednesday in town with Mrs. W. J. Cameron. Mr. Cameron's infected leg, which has kept him confined to his home the greater part of the time for about three weeks, is showing much improvement.

Linwood Keith and Wilbur Edwards were Raleigh visitors Saturday.

Miss Belle Wicker of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty visited relatives in Sanford during the week-end.
