Victor Moore and Helen Broderick, cast as jurors good and true in the delectable screen comedy "We're on the Jury," will be found guilty of committing more uproarious hilarity than the law permits when the photoplay comes to the Pinehurst Theatre Monday, February 15th, matinee and night. Miss Broderick and Mr. Moore were such an effective combination of humorists in the recent Fred Astaire-Ginger Rogers musical "Swing Time" that RKO Radio cast them in the leading roles of this

CHURCH NOTES

The Rev. Road Chatterton, pastor of the First Congregational Church of New Fairfield, Conn., preaches at The Church of Wide Fellowship at 11:00 a. m. on "What is Christianity?" Mr. Chatterton will be remembered as a student summer worker in this church and the church at Niagara during the summer of 1934.

The union evening service is at the First Baptist Church at 8:00 o'clock. The music will be furnished by "The Sandhill Sixteen" and the address will be by Mrs. Tylee of the Bible College at Columbia, S. C.

At the Sunday morning worship of the Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church, meeting in the Civic Club, the sermon subject will be "Judge Not." In this message, the Rev. E. L. Barber will point out that goodness must be read and not caricatured. The real enemies of religion are not necessarily the irreligious, but those who sham religion. The hour of morning worship is 11:00 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

The Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D. D., will teach the Adult Bible Class at 9:45. This is a most interesting class and one that is enlisting the interest of many in Bible study. Those who are not in Sunday School elsewhere are invited to visit this class.

In addition to Sunday and Holy Day services there will be services at Emmanuel Episcopal Church each Wednesday and Friday afternoon during Lent, at a quarter to five o'clock.

The subject of the Lesson Sermon Sunday, February 14 at the Christian Science Society will be "Soul".

FORT BRAGG SERGEANT MISSING SINCE FEB. 1

Fort Bragg officials this week reported that Sergeant James A. Daugherty, 51, quartermaster corps, has been missing since February 1. Fear that he has met with foul play prompted them to appeal for co-operation of all law enforcement agencies in the Carolinas in an effort to find a trace of the missing man.

Sergeant Daugherty is a veteran soldier, entitled to retirement next year on the completion of 30 years service. He had been on duty at all times since 1929.

Daugherty bears a marked resemblance to Jimmy Durante, the stage and screen star. He was last seen in the company of an unnamed civilian, sitting in his parked automobile, a black Ford coach with red wheels. Fort Bragg license 494. He had about $60 on his person.

The missing man is 5 feet 8 and one half inches tall, weighs 151 pounds, and has blue eyes, brown hair tinged with gray, a ruddy complexion and bad front teeth.

Swinging merrily along to the tune of the best songs ever written by the greatest writer of songs in the world, "On the Avenue," is playing a return engagement at the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Feb. 15, 16, 17, with a Tuesday matinee. "On the Avenue" represents Irving Berlin at its melodious best, in a musical that is full of pep and lilted good spirits. With Dick Powell and Madeleine Carroll making a new and romantic two-some of musical comedy, the lively 20th Century-Fox musical presents a real-life romance of New York in a show that's as big as the town. Alice Faye, the Ritz Brothers, and Gerber Barbier add both melody and mirth to new humorous photoplay which is based on the successful play, "Ladies of the Jury" by Fred Ballard, which featured Mrs. Fiske in the leading role.

Marital comedy that will be understood by all married people and enjoyed by all others will rock the rafters with laughter when "Dangerous Number" will be the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, February 17, matinee and night. Robert Young and Ann Sothern have the leading roles. He portrays a young silk manufacturer who interrupts a wedding to escape with the bride himself. She is not unwilling and the complication begins.

Seventeenth Century New England, where high ideals clashed with bigotry, romance with grim reality, and glamour with the severe austerity of the Puritan Fathers, comes to life again at Pinehurst Friday, February 19th, matinee and night, in a powerful and highly romantic motion picture, "Maid of Salem," by far and away one of the biggest pictures of the current season. Produced and directed by Frank Lloyd, only three time winner of the coveted Academy Award, "Maid of Salem" is the story of a Puritan maiden, played by Claudette Colbert, and a dashing Virginia Cavalier, portrayed by Fred MacMurray, whose love become involved in the mysterious witch scare which swept the colony in 1692 and shook America as it then existed to its very foundation. The cast also includes Harvey Stephens, Louise Dresser, Bennie Bartlett, Gale Sondergaard, E. E. Clive, Beulah Bondi, Donald Meek, Bonita Granville, Virginia Weidler and many others. Popeye in "Organ Grinders Swain."

Miss Carroll, noted hitherto for straight dramatic roles, makes a charming sweetheart for Dick Powell.

"Outcast," the attraction at Southern Pines Thursday and Friday, Feb. 18, 19, with a Thursday matinee, is based on the "Red Book." The leading players are Warren William and Karen Morley. William, whose long association with Warner Brothers makes him a familiar screen star, co-starred with Karen Morley, featured in the current Goldwyn production "Beloved Enemy." The strength of the principal members of the support is on a par with the leads. It includes the veteran Lewis Stone, Jackie Moran, Murray Kinnell and Christian Rub. Also "March of Time No. 6" as an added attraction.

Hang on tight! That family's in again. This time, however, its not a private fight, for the Jones Famously in "Off to the Races," the attraction at Southern Pines Saturday, Feb. 20th matinee and night, is beset with a new complication. Uncle Slim Summerville and his horse have moved in. The fourth film in the pop-
