to allow more time for passengers to leave and take the trains here.

Probably one of the greatest advertising features the directors have planned is its decision of Tuesday to have scenes of attractive locations of the village printed on post-cards, or equal, to be distributed free to hotels, rooming houses and other places of advantage for distribution to visitors and tourists. This, the board believe, will be a personal contact with the village visitors and will aid in advertising the place. The scenes will depict the bride paths, following the hounds, etc., carrying the thought that Southern Pines is the beauty spot of the south; climate's happy medium and other attractive themes.

E. T. Chapman, chairman of the finance committee, gave a very satisfactory report.

Struthers Burt gave an interesting talk on his recent visit to South Carolina.

Picquet Announces New Awnings for Boxes at Next Week's Event for Hospital

More than the usual number of early entries have been received for the 20th annual Pinehurst Horse Show, to be held next Tuesday and Wednesday and there is evidence at this writing that the 1937 show will be the greatest in local history. Secretary Charles W. Picquet also made an important announcement yesterday which will interest those who have been accustomed to buying boxes for the two-day event, something which will remove the objections to box seats which have been raised for years.

Brand new awnings, in the colors of the Pinehurst Jockey Club, have been ordered to cover all boxes. In the past the box-holders have been forced to sit in the broiling sun—or on rainy days in the rain—to witness the showing of the various classes. This year for the first time they will be protected, and the boxes are expected to be in great demand as a result. They are on sale at $25.00 for the two days, eight tickets going with each box. And another reason why they'll be in demand is that the proceeds of the Horse Show go to the Moore County Hospital.

Early entries come from all over the state, among the stables to be represented being the following: L. M. Ayres, High Point; Sidney B. Allen, Sedgfield; Mrs. Frances Pickard, Raleigh; Mrs. Henry Jobe, Raleigh; Lawrence Hale, Leaksville; Cabel Howe, Raleigh; E. N. Phillips, High Point; Mrs. Barbara Lansing, Southern Pines; B. A. Tompkins, The Paddock, Southern Pines, and Mrs. George Watts Hill, Durham.

Entries from Pinehurst, already in, include horses of H. Stacey Smith, H. M. Marshall, C. W. Middleton and C. B. Farnsworth.

Thomas Somerville of Camden, S. C., and Montpelier, Va. has entered a number of his fine hunters, and it is probable that other horses wintering at Camden will be here.

Mrs. Lawrence B. Smith of Millbrook, N. Y., and Southern Pines and Everett Crawford of Aiken, S. C., are judging the hunters and jumpers this year, and prominent judges from the north will look after all other classes.

The committee on boxes and parking spaces includes Mrs. John R. Drexel, Mrs. P. S. P. Randolph, Mrs. W. C. Mudgett, Mrs. Almet Jenks and Mrs. Graham Johnston. Boxes and parking spaces may be reserved through the show secretary, Mr. Picquet, at his office in the Carolina Theatre Building, Pinehurst as well as through the committee members.

tery, and the grave was banked with beautiful floral designs.

A large number of Mr. Beasley's Vass friends attended the funeral service.

Surviving are his parents; one brother, Ben Beasley of Apex, and three sisters. Misses Lela and Beatrice Beasley of Apex and Mrs. Jack Strong of Roxboro.

The postal service handled 23,571,315,220 pieces of mail in the 1936 fiscal year.

More Than 100 Persons Ask For Shirts Mis-Priced in The Pilot

It some times takes an error in an advertisement to prove the value of advertising. Melvin's Store found this out last week. The Pilot proof reader failed to catch a mistake in the offering price of Arrow shirts. The advertisement read $1.00 when it should have read $1.98. Result: Mr. Melvin had more than 100 persons in his stores in Aberdeen and Southern Pines asking for the shirts.

The Pilot regrets the error, but at the same time is happy to learn how many people read its advertisements.

At Pinehurst

Topping even their triumphs in "Naughty Marietta" and "Rose Marie" Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, America's favorite singing stars, now come to the screen in the Pinehurst Theatre Sunday night, night, March 28th, at 8:30 and Monday at 3 and 8:30, March 29th, in "Maytime," lavish adaptation of the Rida Johnson Young operetta which was one of the memorable hits of the New York stage. Directed by Robert Z. Leonard, the man who gave filmgoers "The Great Ziegfeld," with a wide variety of songs and with a brilliant supporting cast headed by John Barrymore in his first appearance since "Romeo and Juliet," the new M-G-M musical opens as one of the outstanding sensations of the new movie season. The famous song hit of the original play, "Sweetheart, Will You Remember" was retained for the film version, with the remainder of the musical divided between the sentimental and operatic. Miss MacDonald sings two complete operatic arias and portions of others and Eddy has three novelty songs. Also as an added attraction, "Magician Mickey" a Mickey Mouse.

Another demonstration of the versatile talent of Jean Harlow and Robert Taylor is made evident in "Personal Property," the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, March 31st, matinee and night. Miss Harlow and Taylor are teamed for the first time and their collaboration is distinctly a success. They have the additional benefits of an excellent supporting cast and clever direction by W. S. Van Dyke who has achieved the unique record of never having turned out a failure. "Personal Property" is based on the H. M. Harwood stage success "Man in Possession" and it becomes even more entertaining on the screen due to the greater scope of the camera. A "hand picked" cast supports the co-stars in the new picture.

Bing Crosby, Bob Burns and Martha Raye, the trio who made "Rhythm on the Range" one of last year's outstanding comedies with music are together again in "Waikiki Wedding," a gay comedy of love and music under tropic skies which plays at Pinehurst Friday, April 2nd, matinee and night. Beautiful Shirley Ross, who was with Bob and Martha in "The Big Broadcast of 1937" carries the feminine romantic lead of the new comedy. The cast also includes George Barbier, Leif Erikson, Miri Rei, the Tahitian dancer who was the sensation of the Ziegfeld Follies recently, Luulei and Nalani De Clerq, native Hawaiian dancing team, and over two hundred native dancers, musicians and other performers. "Waikiki Wedding" is the story of a press agent, played by Crosby, whose job it is to keep Miss Ross thrilled with the glamour of Hawaii. He does a thorough job of it, falling in love with her in the process.

At Southern Pines

Outstanding in all production divisions, "A Family Affair," returning to play an engagement at the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, March 29, 30, 31, with a Tuesday matinee at 3, offers entertainment to all audiences. The performances of Lionel Barrymore, Mickey Rooney and the team of Cecilia Parker and Eric Linden are splendid. "A Family Affair" carries the family problem theme familiarly exploited in "Ah Wilderness" and the plot centers on Lionel Barrymore, a Judge up for reelection; his fight against the political factions against him, and his settlement of his family's romantic differences. Also March of Time No. 8. The tenderest romance of our time lives again on the screen when "7th Heaven," plays a return engagement day, April 1-2, with a Thursday matinee, April 1-2 with a Thursday matinee. Simone Simone and James Stewart have the starring roles. As the little street waif, Diana, Simone surpasses all hopes expressed for this sensational French screen kind, touching the deepest places of your heart and emerging gloriously as the screen's newest and greatest star. Opposite her is James Stewart, tall, laughing, gray-eyed, as Chico of the valiant spirit and the shy, yearning love. Montmartre, most colorful and exciting of all sections of Paris, serves as the background. Also, "Don Donald," a Mickey Mouse.

"Charming chappies, these gunsters," was Jeeves' amiable comment, but it seems they some times get rough, and then it's Jeeves by Jeepers, who gets tough. A mobsters' social error makes P. G. Wodehouse's lovable "gentleman's gentleman" tear loose to teach gangland to mend

Mrs. W. E. Evans and Miss Agnes Evans have returned to their home in Rowland.

Mrs. John Beasley was hostess to her bridge club on Tuesday afternoon. Contract was played at two tables and high score made by Mrs. W. D. Sabiston, low by Mrs. M. G. Dalrymple. Mrs. J. L. Lane was a special guest.

Mr. and C. F. Barnes entertained informally at a birthday dinner on Sunday honoring Dr. H. B. Shields. Covers were laid for Dr. Shields, Covers were laid for Dr. Shield, Mrs. Mattie Kelly, Mrs. May Gardner, Hugh Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes.

The Carthage Music Club met on Friday evening with Mrs. M. G. Dalrymple. The subject for study was "American Women Composers." Mrs. H. F. Seawell presented a draft of new by-laws that were enthusiastically adopted by the club. Mrs. George Thomas led the study. "American Music At Turn of the Century." Mrs. H. Lee Thomas talked on "Outstanding Women Musicians." Other numbers were a piano solo by Mrs. John Beasley and a piano duet, "The Ghost Walk," by Mrs. Ralph Tyson and Mrs. Dalrymple.

Slight damage to the residence of Pearl Harrington, Pennsylvania Avenue near Gaines street, was caused by fire Tuesday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock. It is believed the fire was caused by sparks from a nearby brush fire. The Southern Pines fire department extinguished the blaze.

its manners in a bit of jolly nonsense. "Step Lively Jeeves," which plays a return engagement at Southern Pines Saturday, April 3rd, matinee and night. Sad-eyed, elongated Arthur Treacher has the title role and Patricia Ellis and Robert Kent are teamed as a pair of sober, hard-working swindlers.
