FAMOUS "BUTS"
in history

John Jacob Lee was said to be the town's most able "up and doer," and Kitty Pitt was all afit to have John Jacob come and woo her. But courting Kit, John tried and quit as taking to much time and labor. To make a date with lovely Kate He had to telephone her neighbor.

NOTE: To save a few cents a day Kitty's father had discontinued the phone. This caused the family no end of inconvenience and was even worse on the neighbors who had phones. Perhaps it is the reason, too, why Kitty is still fortune's single. Who knows?

112 Gather at Lakeview For Bynum Reunion

D. E. Bailey of Southern Pines Elected President Following Dinner in Duncan's Park

The fourth reunion of the descendants of the late Joseph and Mary Bynum, pioneer settlers of the Vass section, was held at Lakeview Sunday and was one of the most successful yet held. One hundred and twelve members of the family and several visitors came together in Duncan's Park, where a bounteous picnic dinner was spread at 1:00 o'clock.

No formal program was presented. The invocation was spoken by T. R. Moffitt of Sanford, and following the dinner the annual election of officers was held. D. E. Bailey of Southern Pines was elected president to succeed James T. Bynum of Hope Mills, and Mrs. S. R. Smith was retained in the office of secretary-treasurer.

Four of the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bynum were present: Mrs. W. J. Cameron of Vass, Mrs. M. D. McDonald of Hamlet, Mrs. Catharine Shaw of Southern Pines and Mrs. Florence Thomas of Cornelius. One other, Mrs. A. J. Keith, had passed away since the reunion last August.

Mrs. J. H. Suttonfield Honored by Federation of State Women

Moore county farm women played an important part in the Farm and Home week held at State College last week.

Mrs. J. H. Suttonfield of Pinebluff was elected treasurer of the State Federation of Home Demonstration clubs. Mrs. Suttonfield is the first state officer from Moore county. She has been active in club work in her county for a number of years and last year served as district chairman.

Mrs. Jacques Busbee of Jugtown delighted more than 90 women each day with her lessons on "The Gracious Hostess." Mrs. Busbee, an artist and home-maker, taught that real art in home-making is found in the home-maker, herself, and that the most beautiful service is the simplest. Her tables delighted everyone from the most sophisticated to the most humble home-maker present, it is said, and no other teacher there presented more practical suggestions than did Mrs. Busbee.

At the 4-H short course, Miss Alberta Monroe of West End used for the first time as an instructor her skill in teaching pine needle basket making. The class, of necessity, was limited to 70 members. No craft presented recently has created the interest that pine needle basketry did this summer, Miss Flora McDonald reported.

Those attending Farm and Home Week from Moore county were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Suttonfield, Mrs. Theo Berg, Mrs. Comb and Mrs. Pearl Rarden of Pinebluff; Mrs. Bill Cook, Aberdeen; Mrs. Joe Wilcox and Mrs. W. F. Alexander of Vass; Mrs. Lee Comer, Carthage; Mrs. J. S. Smith and Miss Mamie Arnold of Eureka; Mrs. W. M. McLeod of Eureka; Mrs. Jacques Busbee, Steeds, and Miss Flora McDonald, home agent.

Misses Jeanette Wooten, Marie Parker, Flora Phillips and June M. Hemphill gave a shower at Miss Hendrick's home in honor of Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Jr., of Vass, who was, before her marriage, Miss Margaret McDermott of Cameron. The contest for the afternoon was "Ships at Sea." Mrs. M. D. McIver won the first prize and Mrs. M. McL. McKeithen received the second prize. The shower was presented in the form of a ship brought in by Andrew Muse Hemphill, Jr., of Aberdeen. About 50 guests were present. The gifts were lovely as well as useful. Block ice cream and cake was served at the conclusion.

D. J. Pierce left last week for Canada where he will help in curing tobacco.

Miss Mary McDonald spent last week-end at home.

Mrs. J. D. McLean and Margaret McLean are visiting in Vanceboro this week.

Misses Annie and Margaret McFadyen entertained Circle No. 2 of the Womans Auxiliary last Friday, Miss Annie McFadyen was program leader and at the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. Jewell Hemphill gave a report on Montreat. Ice cream and
