A. & P. STORE ANNOUNCES CHANGES IN PERSONNEL

In preparation for the anticipated increase in business this fall and winter, the A. & P. Tea Company has made several additions to its Southern Pines force after operating this past summer with a somewhat reduced personnel.

Clyde Miller, who managed the meat department this summer, has been transferred to Asheville and H. M. Prendergast has come here in Mr. Miller's place. With Mr. Prendergast, at the meat counter, will be Wilbur Thompson.

In the grocery department L. D. McDonald has assumed the management and Marvin Ray, who has been here all summer, remains as assistant manager.

Cameron and Community

The ladies of the Baptist church spent Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. Laura Rogers, where they were engaged in canning fruit and vegetables for the Baptist Orphanage. The day's work resulted in over five dozen cans. In the evening the Y. P. A. enjoyed a delightful fried chicken picnic in the beautiful Rogers Grove.

Miss Margaret McLean spent a few days last week in Orangeburg, S. C., with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McLean. She returned home Saturday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. McLean, who are visiting relatives in Cameron and Vass.

Neill McDonald, Hugh McPherson, Jr., and Raymond Spivey, recent graduates of Cameron High School, left Tuesday for Banner Elk, where they entered school at Lees-McRae.

Mrs. Paul Joyner and son, Billy, of Fayetteville, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wooten.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ferguson and Nancy and Kenneth Ferguson, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. P. McPherson, returned to their home in Chicago on Saturday. Miss Jean Ferguson remained with her grandparents and will enter Queens College in Charlotte this month.

Mrs. Janie Muse left Monday for Rockingham where she is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Holmes, Miss Emma Spicer and John and Gabe Holmes, Jr., of Goldsboro, spent the week-end with the Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill. They returned home on Monday, but Mrs. Holmes remained for a weeks visit.

Miss Katie Harrington spent last week in Boone, where she took a special course pertaining to her work in the W. P. A.

Dr. and Mrs. C. N. Eckerson announce the birth of a daughter, Ann Terrell, on Monday, August 30, at Lee County Hospital.

Mrs. O. C. Britton moved last week to Winston Salem. Her daughter, Miss Martha Britton, has a stenographic position in that city, and her son, Jack Britton, will attend the city school. The moving of this family is a great loss to our community.

In the interest of the county road from Cameron to Fayetteville, which they hope to have built in the near future, a delegation some 20 strong, of the men and women of Cameron, appeared on Monday, before the county commissioners, in Carthage. They received a most courteous hearing, and were assured their wishes would receive careful consideration.
