Will McMillan Found Dead in Cow Pasture

Prominent and Esteemed Farmer of Cypress Church Community Heart Attack Victim

Will McMillan, 54, well-known resident of the Cypress Church community several miles east of Vass, was found dead in a field near his home last Friday afternoon. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Mr. McMillan left the house about 1:00 o'clock to move a cow he had tethered in a field nearby. An hour later his son, John William, was walking through the field and came upon his father lying face downward, his head bloody from a gash, and found that he was dead.

The coroner was summoned, and he expressed the opinion that death came from a heart attack and that the wound was caused by the cow stepping on him after he had fallen to the ground.

Although Mr. McMillan had been able to work all the while, he had been receiving treatment for high blood pressure and had been warned by his physician to be careful, it is said.

Mr. McMillan was a member of Cypress Church and was held in high esteem, being one of the most useful men in his community.

"Day or night, he would go, whatever you needed," one of his neighbors commented.

Mr. McMillan is survived by eight sons and daughters: Gordon McMillan, John William McMillan, Hoyt McMillan, Rosser McMillan, Sara Margaret McMillan and Edith McMillan, all of Cameron Route 2; Mrs. John Furr of Vass Route 2, and Miss Ellen Kate McMillan of Sanford; his father, Pat McMillan, and one sister, Miss Sallie McMillan, both of whom resided with him, and a brother, Dan McMillan, of Florida. His wife, the former Miss Ethel Johnson of the Cypress community, died several years ago.

Funeral services were held at Cypress Church Saturday afternoon.

WHEN you have those awful cramps; when your nerves are all on edge—don't take it out on the man you love. Your husband can't possibly know how you feel for the simple reason that he is a man. A three-quarter wife may be no wife at all if she nags her husband seven days out of every month. For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age." Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through."
