On the last Sunday of the year, Prof. and Mrs. J. Clyde Kelly entertained at a family dinner. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Ever Kelly of near White Hill, Miss Bert Kelly of Washington, D. C., and for the host and hostess and their four children.

Prof. and Mrs. R. F. Lowry charmingly entertained on New Year's night at a delightful bridge party. Three tables were in play, Mrs. Louisa Muse was presented an attractive marmalade jar for high score prize, while low score fell to J. D. McLean, assisted by Misses Isabel McKeithen and Evelyn Ann Snow the hostess served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McKeithen graciously entertained at a bridge party on New Year's eve and the same evening Miss Jean Kelly entertained the young college students at the home of her parents, Prof. and Mrs. J. Clyde Kelly. Miss Kelly invited Mr. and Mrs. McKeithen and their guests to join them at 11:30, when refreshments were served, souvenirs of gaily decorated horns were passed and the New Year was ushered in with the noise of trumpets and laughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laubscher of High Point announce the birth of a son, Robert, Jr., on New Year's day.

Misses Flora Phillips and Jeanette Wooten were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Jr., of Vass on Friday evening.

Miss Velva Harmon of Durham and Mr. and Mrs. Leangranto of South Boston, Va., were guests during the holidays of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thomas.

Mrs. Belle McKeithen was dinner guest last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. McIver and Miss Mamie Arnold of Route 1.

Miss Mary E. McNeill left last Thursday for Florida, Ala., where she will spend some time with relatives.

Mrs. John McQueen of Elizabeth City and her brother, John McNeill of Maysville, Ky., were guests of the Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill on Friday of last week.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Mallard and daughters, Misses Mary Ellen and Lou Millard of Alamance church, Greensboro, were guests last week of Prof. and Mrs. J. Clyde Kelly.

Misses Annie H. and Ellen R. Jones, and Messrs. Truitt, Henry Dowell, Edgar White and Wingate Jones spent the holidays with their father, C. C. Jones on Route 1.

Misses Annie McFadyen, Effie Gilchrist and Beulah Thomas returned to their school work at Biscoe, Oriental and Henderson on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Bullock, who spent the holidays in Georgia, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. J. J. Irvin, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Laubscher in High Point, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. O. C. Britton, Miss Martha and Jack Britton of Winston-Salem were week-end guests of Cameron friends.

Miss Sarah Howard, dietitian at the Methodist Children's Home, Winston-Salem was the guest Friday of Prof. and Mrs. J. Clyde Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. McIver spent last week-end with Mrs. John C. Bruton of Columbia, S. C., and returned Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Bruton, who is their guest this week.

The Rev. L. A. McLaurin of Hemp will preach in the Cameron Presbyterian Church at 11:00 o'clock Sunday morning, January 9.

Kenneth Wooten left Monday for Brunswick, Ga., where he has accepted a position with a textile company.

Mrs. Pete Phillips and little daughter Mary Jane, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill of Granite Falls, returned home Friday.

Neill and James McDonald, Hugh McPherson and Raymond Spivey returned to Lees-McRae College Monday; Misses Margaret McLean to N. C. C. W., June Hemphill to Louisville, Elizabeth Thomas to Campbell and Francis Thomasson to Wake Forest.

Adopts Resolution on Death of Father of Miss Bess McCaskill, Clerk of Board

The Board of County Commissioners met Monday but recessed from 2:30 to 5:00 on account of the funeral of Hugh McCaskill, father of the clerk, with the result that little business was transacted.

The following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, the members of the Moore County Board of County Commissioners have learned with profound regret of the passing of Hugh McCaskill, the beloved father of our clerk, Bess McCaskill, and

"Whereas, the members do hereby desire to give expression of their deepest sympathy to and for Bess McCaskill and her family in their great bereavement and sorrow for the loss which they have sustained,

"It is ordered that a copy of this resolution be sent to Miss McCaskill and members of her family.

The report of Miss Flora McDonald, home agent, was read and accepted; Mrs. Ruth Caviness, Eagle Springs Route 1, was allowed $8 per month until check is received from the welfare department and the Holy Inn Hotel at Pinehurst was granted a license for sale of beer and wine.

At least part of the news about "Love and Hisses" ought to be on Page One as an extra. Simone Simon sings! And how the glorious glamor girl sings! Twentieth Century Fox's new idea in musical show hits, "Love and Hisses" the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre Monday, January 10th, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m., is, to borrow a phrase from one of its stars, a wowsah. Under the order of new business it brings up that old toss-around between the Rajah of Rib, Walter Winchell, and his "Old Mousetrap," Ben Bernie. This T. N. T. for-two picture has a new kind of "ummph" (how this talk creeps into the language) in the co-starring efforts of a torchy new Simone Simon touching off the pf-f-fuse. Other funsters in the cast are Bert Lahr, Joan Davis (no less) Dick Baldwin, Ruth Terry and Chick Chandler.

New York in its most glittering and romantic mood—the mood of the Gay Nineties, and the Naughty Hundreds.—the period that saw "Diamond Jim" Brady, "Jubilee Jim" Fiske and other bon vivants at their gayest, is the playground for Mae West in her new film comedy, "Every Day's a Holiday," the attraction at Pinehurst Friday, January 14th, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m. Set at the turn of the century, Miss West's latest adventure is the story of a girl with a penchant for selling the Brooklyn Bridge to unsuspecting strangers, an idiocracy which gets her into difficulties with the police, particularly Edmond Lowe, a detective. Lowe is assigned to the job of "bringing" in the elusive Miss West which is not an easy one for him.

Advocates of both popular and classical music will respond to the news that in "Hitting A New High," the attraction playing a return engagement at the Southern Pines Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, January 10-11 at 8:20 with a matinee Tuesday at 3:00, Lily Pons sets out to demonstrate that a ranking vocal talent can be exercised with equivalent effectiveness in both media. Persons attracted by the promise of such a demonstration will go away convinced that virtuosity and versatility are indeed compatible characteristics, for the diminutive diva sings three numbers in each bracket, even throwing in a bit of stepping for good measure, with equal facility.

The comedy of the picture is taken care of most ably by those three inimitable funsters, Edward Everett Horton, Jack Oakie and Eric Blore.

Smartly produced, with a brilliant cast making the most of the witty dialogue and new comedy situations, "Wise Girl" plays a return engagement at Southern Pines Wednesday and Thursday, January 12-13, with a matinee Thursday at 3:00. The able and clever Miriam Hopkins heads a cast that leaves nothing to be desired, Ray Milland turns in a swell performance opposite her and he is ably aided and abetted by Walter Abel and Gunn Williams.

An epic Sweep—those are the words to describe Frank Lloyd's production, "Wells Fargo," playing a return engagement at Southern Pines Friday and Saturday, January 14, 15, with a Saturday matinee at 3:00.
