The Week in Aberdeen

Book Club Meeting
Mrs. W. E. Freeman was hostess to the members of the Walter Hines Page Book Club at her home last Thursday afternoon, when the annual business meeting and election of officers was held, with the same officers, Mrs. E. M. Harris, president; Mrs. C. M. Wilson, vice-president; Mrs. E. M. Medlin, secretary, and Mrs. W. E. Freeman, treasurer, being unanimously re-elected. The subject of the afternoon's study was "Columnists of Our Era" with Mrs. Forrest Lockett giving a paper on "Arthur Brisbane," Mrs. S. E. Sloan, a paper on Walter Winchell and Mrs. C. V. Miller a paper on Dorothy Thompson. The Valentine motif was carried out in the decorations and refreshments served at the close of the meeting.

Anniversary Party
Mr. and Mrs. Don Easterling celebrated their first wedding anniversary by entertaining a number of their friends at five tables of bridge at their home last Friday evening. After an enjoyable hour at cards Miss Edna Maurer was presented with the high score prize for the ladies, Jack Smith high score prize for the men, and Scott Russell the consolation.

That Bingo Party
Please bear in mind the Bingo Party given by the Ways and Means committee of the Parent-Teachers Association tonight, Friday, in the lunch room of the Grammar School, the proceeds of which will be used to defray expenses of hot lunches for the rest of the school year.

Hi-Y Boys Program
The Hi-Y Club of Aberdeen High School will be in charge of the program this Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. The topic will be "What Does it Mean to Be a Christian From the Youth's Standpoint." Every Hi-Y member will have an active part in the program. Speakers will be W. H. McNeill, Jr., Clayton Brasington, Gene Folley, Gorman Smith, John D. McLeod, Jr., Marvin Weaver and Lawrence Rowe. The choir will be composed of members of the High School Glee Club. The young people of the community are especially urged to attend.

Birthdays Entertain
An enjoyable bridge party, whose hostesses and hosts were young people in Aberdeen having their birthdays in February—Misses Alice Wilder, Mary Ellen Yelverton, Nettie Allen, Latoria Sally, and J. C. Robbins and Frank McCluer, Jr.—was held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Page last Monday evening. Miss Anne Coppedge was awarded high score prize for the ladies and Edgar Bowman for the men, with the consolation going to Miss Betty Lee of Southern Pines.
