Annual Church Night at Pinehurst Tuesday

Congregation To Hear Reports of Activities of Community Church in Past Year

The annual Church Night of Pinehurst Community Church will be observed at a supper meeting of the congregation at 7:00 o'clock Tuesday evening, March 22. At this meeting reports are read of all the activities of the church during the past year, and officers are elected to fill the vacancies which occur in the official board.

Some idea of the scope of the work to be reported at this meeting is indicated in the following program of the evening:

Minutes of preceding Church Night, I. C. Sledge; Treasurer's Report, S. R. Ransdell; Report of Property Committee, Ellis Fields; Church School Report, W. P. Morton; Reports by each of the eight department superintendents; Woman's Auxiliary Report, Mrs. A. J. McKelway; Report of Young People's Work, Mrs. McKelway; Presentation of Boy Scout Work, David Coffey; of Cub Scout Work, Clarence Thomas; of Girl Scout Work, Miss Laivora Sally; Report of Building Fund Committee, Mr. Sledge; Report of Budget and Finance Committee, J. F. Taylor; Report of Nominating Committee, Harold Kelly; Summary of the Work of the Church, Rev. A. J. McKelway.

WILLING WORKERS FAIR PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

The Willing Workers' fair passed off with gratifying success. Those who stayed after the supper were pleasantly entertained with piano solos by Mrs. V. J. Lee and Miss Jane Grant Mann and with several songs by Delmar and Drennan Mann. Mrs. Annie Fisher gave an interesting talk entitled "The Missionary Barrell."
