

Spring or Fall Summer or Winter

The Quality of Our Drugs is always the same—

THE BEST OBTAINABLE

Your Prescriptions Require
the Best. Have them Filled here.

BROAD STREET PHARMACY
Prescription Druggists
R. L. Hart, Proprietor

Desirable for Spring

To meet the wants of our patronage we receive fresh
every day the finest fruits and vegetables in the market.

In season and out we are prepared to meet your desires for a varied menu.

CHOICE MEATS
Select Poultry
and Eggs

DORN'S

Charge accounts for convenience
Call 7474 for Instant Service Delivery Service

The Week in Southern Pines

Miss Sarah Edith Matthews and Preston Matthews, student at Pfeiffer Junior College at Messenhimer, are spending their Spring vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Matthews.

Stancil Stroud of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill spent last week-end at his home here.

Nancy Wrenn, Rebecca Neal, Charles Phillips, James Ritchie and Edward Prizer, all of the Southern Pines High School attended the annual meeting of the Beta Clubs of North Carolina held in Raleigh last week-end.

Miss Sylvia Pethick has resumed her studies at Sweet Briar College, Va., after spending Spring Vacation here.

Mrs. Wilbur Evans of Tarboro spent last week-end as the guest of Miss Katie Lee Ward.

Eleven tables were in play at the bridge tea given Saturday by the Thistle Club at the Southern Pines Country Club. Prizes for high scores were awarded Mrs. Harry W. Gage, Mrs. C. K. Maynard, Mrs. D. G. Stutz, Mrs. Walter Spaeth, Mrs. Rachel Richards, Mrs. E. H. Tracy, Mrs. John Brooks, Mrs. C. A. Rouillard, Miss Margaret Wolfe, Mrs. George W. Case and Miss Virginia Kane. At next week's party, Mrs. P. P. Pelton will be the tea hostess with Mrs. Frank Pottle and Mrs. Elinor Weaver in charge of cards.

Miss Doris Crowell, student at Smith College, Northampton, Mass., is spending the Spring holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Crowell, Jr.

Mrs. H. A. Gould had as her guests for bridge Friday afternoon at the Southern Pines Country Club, Mrs. Charles Parker, Mrs. Fred W. Van Camp and Mrs. Kate H. Goodbody.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Schwartz have returned from a week's stay in Reading, Pa., and Alexandria, Va. Miss Frances Schwartz remained in Alexandria for a longer visit with her sister, Mrs. W. E. Swan.

Struthers Burt of Philadelphia is spending a week with his sister, Mrs. Burt Hunt. Mrs. Burt, who spent the week-end here, has returned to Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Case have returned to their home in Auburn, N. Y., after spending a week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson C. Hyde.

The Misses Shirley and Joan Burke of New York are spending a week with their father, Frederick H. Burke and Mrs. Burke at their home on Young's Road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Parker have returned to their home in Taunton, Mass., after spending three weeks here.

Miss Jean Kerney of Pittsburgh, Pa., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. E. Walker and Mr. Walker. Dr. Gardner Kerney, who is doing post graduate work at Duke University, spent last week-end here.

Richard Pethick of the Hill School, Pottstown, Pa., is spending his Spring vacation here.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Robinson have returned from a trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Elliot of Fayetteville spent last week-end as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Moore.

Mrs. H. W. Shaw and Miss Frances Shaw of Indianapolis, Ind., sister and niece of Mrs. M. B. Rush are guests this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Picquet on Midland Road.

Miss Adaline Cook is in New York for ten days.

Mrs. Zetta Dighilage of Charleston, W. Va., is the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Hewitt and family.

John R. Mulholland of Buxton is spending a few days at his home here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hewitt and daughter Lenora, Mrs. Zetta Dighilage and David Paul spent Friday in Fayetteville and Parkton.

Mrs. Charles E. Crowell, Jr., entertained thirty guests at a tea Thursday afternoon at her home on Morganton Road. Mrs. H. A. Page, Jr., of Aberdeen and Mrs. Kenneth B. Trousall presided at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Andrews of Syracuse, N. Y., arrived Wednesday night for a short visit with Mrs. Andrews' brother, Nelson C. Hyde and Mrs. Hyde, while enroute North after several weeks stay in Florida.

Mrs. Neill McKeithen of Aberdeen had Mrs. P. T. Kelsey, Miss Florence Campbell and Mrs. Ernest Morrell as her bridge and tea guests Thursday afternoon at the Southern Pines Country Club.

Mrs. R. F. Tarlton returned home on Wednesday from the Moore County Hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. G. R. Campbell of Augusta, Me., have arrived at Highland Lodge for their annual visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Heaton I. Treadway arrived Thursday from Palm Beach, Fla., and are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. William C. Mudgett while enroute to their summer home in Stockbridge, Mass.

Announcement was made here this week of the engagement of Miss Virginia Kane, daughter of Mrs. Elisha Kent Kant of Kane, Pa., and Southern Pines, to Milton Engstrom of Smithport, Pa. The wedding will take place in the early summer.

Mrs. Hunter Eckert entertained a number of friends at a cocktail party Monday evening at her home on Indiana avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Durgin returned to their home Shirley Hill, Manchester, N. H., after several weeks stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Stanley Smith and Mrs. Mark Light spent Friday evening at Flora Macdonald College in Red Springs where Mr. Smith served as judge for the annual public school Music Contest of Robeson, Hoke and Scotland counties.

PAIR ARRESTED IN SANFORD AFTER GASOLINE THEFT HERE

Two men drove up to Williams' Service Station on the northern edge of Southern Pines Sunday night and ordered ten gallons of gasoline. When the operator had filled the tank and was just starting to clean the windshield the driver threw in his clutch, almost knocking the man down, and drove off.

But not quickly enough to prevent the license number being taken. Southern Pines police were notified, a call put in to Sanford and that's as far as the pair got. When picked up in Sanford their car was found to contain guns and ammunition. The police are looking up their records. Their car bore an Orlando, Florida plate.

KIWANIS HAS INTER-CLUB MEETING IN PINEHURST

George T. Penny of Greensboro, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from this district, was the principal speaker at an inter-club Kiwanis meeting held last night in the Pinehurst Community Church. The Raeford, Sanford and Sandhills Club held a joint meeting in which each took part. James R. Nance of Lumberton, lieutenant governor of this Kiwanis division, was among those present.

Charlton Huntley of Presbyterian College, Clinton, S. C., is at home for the Spring holidays.

DRAPERY
and
UPHOLSTERY
WORKSHOP

CATHERINE PIERSON
Interior Designer
Bank Bldg. Southern Pines, N. C.

Tennis Days Are Here

White Ducks	White Flannels
Polo Shirts	Crew-Neck Shirts
Cotton Slacks	Sweat Shirts
Shorts	Athletic Socks

TENNIS SHOES

White or Blue

TOG SHOP

SOUTHERN PINES

ALL
SPRING COATS
REDUCED
FOR
CLEARANCE

MRS. HAYES' SHOP

THE COFFEE SHOP

ASSORTED ROLLS

Cinnamon Buns, Pecan Buns, Hot Cross Buns.

PIES — CAKES

E Broad St., Southern Pines
Telephone 6852

Our's Is Laundry Service At Its Best

Prompt daily service, with quality work.

LAUNDERED CLOTHES GUARD HEALTH

SOUTHERN PINES LAUNDRY CO., Inc.
Telephone 6101
W. New York Ave.

PILOT ADVERTISING PAYS

Protect your home with a Residence Burglary, Larceny and Theft Policy. Annual Cost as low as 1%.

AGENT

GARLAND A. PIERCE

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE PILOT

Save 230 miles driving North!

Drive To Norfolk; put your car
aboard the CHESAPEAKE LINE
STEAMER and enjoy a good night's sleep while you save 230 miles of mean driving!
Steamers leave Norfolk from foot of Jackson St. every evening at 6:15; arrive in Baltimore
6:30 the next morning.

Autos $4 Any Make
One Way Fare $4

No bother—no draining of gas—and a really delightful boat trip. For reservations or details, write or wire:

W. E. LAWRENCE, Agent
Jackson St., Norfolk, Va.

CHESAPEAKE
STEAMSHIP CO.