Guest Speaker at Church

At the Presbyterian church on Monday evening, Robert Shemoda, of Japan, gave a most interesting talk, telling of many customs, religions and events of his country; relating many ludicrous happenings which he experienced during his three years in America.

Mr. Shemoda is a highly educated, devoted Christian and as he stepped on the rostrum with a splendid command of English, and with easy grace of manner, one felt he would hold the attention of any audience. He was converted and accepted the Christian religion by reading the Bible which was presented to him by a friend. He urged his audience to share their religion with his people by sending Bibles to the students of Japan. He made one astonishing and emphatic statement, "that of the 300,000 christians in Japan, not one of them would smoke or drink!"

At the close of the church service a large number repaired to the home of Mrs. Orene McPherson, and Mr. Shemoda showed a number of moving pictures of his beautiful country. Mr. Shemoda was a classmate of Ernest Arnold at Yale Divinity School last year, and in his tour through the south this summer, included Mr. Arnold's church and was guest of Mr. Arnold at the home of Miss Mamie Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. McIver on Monday night.
